Gifting your time means that cancer patients will have comfortable (one on one) transport to attend appointments for their lifesaving treatment. If you can spare 2 days per month, have a valid driving licence, and a safe, reliable vehicle, you are the perfect candidate to make a significant difference. The Irish Cancer Society will provide you with training before you start as a driver for us. Your generosity not only eases the journey for many during a challenging time but also offers comfort and support when it's needed most. For more info and to become a volunteer driver, please contact Monica or Emily at volunteer@irishcancer.ie THE PRIORY INSTITUTE provides online Theology courses to degree level. Attend Saturday lectures in Tallaght or from the comfort of your own home. Register now to begin on 19 Sept. Find out more on www.prioryinstitute.com

DEATH Your prayers are asked for Liam McLaughlin (Strain) who died recently and for his family and friends saddened by their loss.								READINGS FOR 23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 1st Reading: Ez 33:7-9. Ezekiel (600 BC), was primarily a visionary. As both prophet and priest, he lived during the destruction of Jerusalem and the subsequent deportations to Babylon (modern day Iraq). His prophecies were an important preparation for Christ, The Saviour is viewed as a shepherd rather than as a 'king', whose gift will be a new heart and new spirit. Following Ezekiel we must do our utmost to correct our brother, both individually and collectively. 2nd Reading: Rm 13:8-10. We have to learn to help and to heal each other. Loving our neighbour as ourselves, the new law brought by Christ, is the one thing that cannot hurt anyone. Gospel: Mt. 18:15-20. This teaching complements the one about the shepherd (Jesus) going after his one lost sheep. His communities will imitate the shepherd in caring for everyone, providing fraternal correction where necessary. Jesus will never abandon them.
PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS We pray for the men called to priesthood, to the ministry of teaching and preaching in the name of Jesus, and encouraging their brothers and sisters to turn away from sin and live as followers of Christ in today's world.
SICK VISITATIONS Fr Bradley will visit the sick and housebound in his care on Wed 9 Sept in the town areas, and on Thurs 10 Sept in the country areas.
