Thought for today:

Creation is God's work. Before humanity was, the rest of creation came into being. The earth and her creatures – indeed the whole cosmos – have beauty, dignity, and meaning before human presence. So, to be amazed at the wonder of creation is part of our calling. Look up to the skies, walk in the fields, stand at the sea's edge. Everything belongs; every thing has beauty! The garden is such a model for our care of creation.

Our call is to be good gardeners, thoughtful, alert and diligent, working with the soil and with the rhyme of the seasons, caring for the creatures who find a home and a shelter in the garden.

Each Other's Keepers

In any group, small and big, things cause friction. Everyone thinks his or her way is right. We can fight over who is right. Some things are worth a fight, others not.

In the big questions of life, we need the advice, support and love of the other. Many people ask themselves, "Why I didn't give an honest opinion about a decision like marriage or a job or a course of studies which seemed ill-advised to everyone?" We all have good and not-so-good tendencies. We can only advise as best we can, sensitively and wisely, and hope we get a hearing.

We are afraid to hurt, to be rejected. Why do we let so many people drink themselves into trouble and never tell them? The terror of a neighbourhood, no matter what age, needs to be confronted. The problem of drugs in a neighbourhood is not confronted. Crime is not reported.

I am my sister's keeper

In small and big things, we are each other's keeper. Jesus is saying something like that today.

Parents can find this difficult as they try to guide the family well and not lose them. We have social responsibility in the family and in our neighbourhood and even worldwide for the common good.

God wants the best for each of us. We can help each other to goodness, we can support each other, advise each other, pray for and with each other, and help each other on our way to God.

*Recall an occasion when someone gave you good advice, even when you may not have liked it at the beginning.
Be grateful!*

Give me wisdom, Lord, when others ask me for advice or an opinion.
