We look forward to welcoming him warmly. Weather permitting, we will begin a walk from the Stone Jug at 12.30pm out to Father Hegarty's Rock for Mass there at 2.00pm. There will be transport available by bus from The Oratory Carpark via the Stone Jug to Ned's Point, and thereafter by golf buggy for those who could not be expected to walk that distance. The walk will be led by the Bishop. Like the disciples on the Road to Emmaus, we might discuss a few things about the life of the Church on the way. Friar Séamus Hegarty was Parish Priest of the territory now covered by the two parishes of Burt, Inch and Fahan and Desertegney & Lower Fahan. This will be a lovely opportunity for us to welcome the Bishop to this beautiful area and for him to experience the faith that lives in our hearts and homes here. After the Mass we will walk back to Ned's Point where transport will be available to take people back to the Stone Jug or The Oratory Carpark or on to Cockhill Hall where there will be tea & buns for everyone and a chance for the Bishop to meet us all. Bakers are invited to provide goods for the refreshments. If you are able to bake something please let the Parish Office know. In the event of bad weather, there is a Plan B. Please consider coming to this once off event and welcoming the Bishop warmly. Father Bradley				ADORATION CHAPEL Please consider spending an hour in the Adoration Chapel Sunday 2pm - 10pm Monday - Wednesday 6am - 10pm Friday 6am - 10pm ADORERS NEEDED There are many hours in the Adoration Chapel that are sparsely filled; Fridays are especially quiet. READINGS FOR 26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 1st Reading: Ez 18:25-28 Ezekiel wrote during the first stage of the Babylonian exile warning his people of the consequences of their infidelity to God. He used language and images that are shocking even today (C/f chapters 5,ff). In this passage he calls Israel back to true religion and proclaims that the Lord's approach to repentant sinners is gracious. 2nd Reading: Phil 2:1-11 Paul urges his dear convert friends at Philippi to emulate the humility of Christ. Today's poem is about the “kenosis” of Christ, i.e., his emptying of himself of his divinity to become human, ending up nailed to a cross between thieves. There is no mixing of Jesus’ two natures. Although divine and always enjoying the Beatific Vision he experienced everything just as we do, everything except sin. “God raised him high.” Gospel: Mt 21:28-32 In today's parable Jesus warned the priests and elders of the people that God's wish was that an entire sinful world should embrace salvation. Yet, while notorious, well-known sinners were believing, repenting and being welcomed into the kingdom, ‘respectable’ figures like themselves were ignoring the call, preferring to remain outside.				BAPTISMS We welcome into God's Family the following children who were recently baptised: Scott Rú Connolly Corey Cairnan Crossan Ivan Osamudiamen Luyeta Erin-Rose McLaughlin May God guide and protect our children always.				DEATH Your prayers are asked for Kathleen McGinley Marie Dunne Sinead McColgan who died recently and for their families and friends saddened by their loss.				PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS In the words of St Paul in our second reading, we pray that the men called to serve as priests of our diocese will '...be united in their convictions and in their love.....with no competition among them, no conceit; but everybody self-effacing, always considering the other person to be better than themselves, each one thinking of other people's interests first.' "In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus."				FUN DAY Gaelscoil Bhun Cranncha are hosting a Fun Day on Sat 3 Oct from 11am-1pm for pre-school children and their parents.
