Vatican News

The Catholic Church's World Day of Migrants and Refugees will focus this year on minors on the move, recalling the duty to welcome each one of them as the Gospel teaches us. "Even just one of these children" is the theme that Pope Leo XIV has chosen for the 112th edition of the day, which will be marked on Sunday, 27th September. The title is a reference to Matthew 18:5: "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me."

"With this choice, the Holy Father intends to express the Church's concern for minors directly involved in migration, recalling the duty to welcome each one of them as the Gospel teaches us," the statement says.

The Dicastery also notes that this "is not the first time that the Popes have spoken authoritatively on this issue, but the current migration situation presents new challenges that seriously threaten the rights and dignity of the youngest among us and require urgent and effective responses. Therefore, this is not a matter of discussing numbers or percentages, because 'even just one' has the highest value."

Our Lady, Untier of Knots Novena - The Novena to Our Lady, Untier of Knots will begin after the 7.30pm Mass on Thursday, 1st October in Saint Eugene's Cathedral. It will continue for the following eight Thursdays, concluding on 26th November. Do you have “knots” in your life? Knots of discord in your family, unresolved pain in relationships, or a lack of peace and joy in your home? Sometimes life can feel like one overwhelming knot, especially when we face health challenges or burdens beyond our control. This Novena reminds us that sin never entangled Our Lady, and that Christ gave us His Mother as Our Lady, Untier of Knots. Through this devotion, we entrust our personal “knots” to her loving care—learning to let go and allowing her to gently untie what binds us. All are welcome to join in prayer and reflection during this special time of grace.

Ministers of the Word in Cappagh & Drumragh Parishes are invited to a refresher training session in Christ the King Church on Tuesday 14th at 8pm and Wednesday 15th October in Sacred Heart Church at 8pm.

You can choose whichever evening suits you.

We hope all readers will be able to attend.

Thank you for participating in this important Ministry.

Details for refresher training for Eucharistic Ministers will follow.
