Life is full of promises - to change, improve, forgive, serve, and do what is right. Yet even sincere intentions can remain only words.

Jesus tells of two sons asked to work in their father's vineyard. One refused but later went; the other agreed but did not. The story shows that actions matter more than words.

True change turns faith into action: the gospel passage invites us to be honest about where we need to grow, to live out kindness and forgiveness, to refuse to be defined by past mistakes, to offer God a willing heart, to examine our conduct, and embrace every opportunity to do good. God values sincere action over empty promises, and it is never too late to begin again.

Lord, fill our hearts with Your love and guide us to live our faith each day. Amen.

The Novena to Our Lady, Untier of Knots Novena begins after 7.30 pm Mass on Thursday 1st Oct in St Eugene's Cathedral and continues each Thursday until 26th November. Do you have "knots" in your life? Knots of discord in your family, unresolved pain in relationships, or a lack of peace and joy in your home? Sometimes life can feel like one overwhelming knot, especially when we face health challenges or burdens beyond our control. This novena reminds us that sin never entangled Our Lady, and that Christ gave us His Mother as Our Lady, Untier of Knots. Through this devotion, we entrust our personal "knots" to her loving care - learning to let go and allowing her to gently untie what binds us. All are welcome to join in prayer and reflection during this special time of grace.

As we gather in Christ's name God gives us the gift of repentance that we may celebrate the Eucharist with open hearts and minds.

In today's Gospel we find the two sons, each doing the opposite to what they declare; while Jesus tells us that tax collectors and prostitutes paid attention to John the Baptist and they changed too. There is plenty of common ground between those bible figures and our own fickle behaviour.

One day we can be full of fervour and keen to profess our Christian faith, come what may. The next we can't pray. Is all our time wasted? Those who reject belief, faith, Church, religion and moral responsibility continue life as contented, apparently, as everyone else. Many of them were our classmates with whom we received our First Holy Communion and Confirmation. They don't darken the door of the church anymore. They changed their minds!

Of all the gifts given to us by God, the freedom of choice is perhaps the greatest. We're not pre-determined beings; our choices are sacred and are literally our making, our doing and undoing. When we respond positively to God's grace as also reflected in the best and noblest inspirations and aspirations of our environment, we're shaping ourselves more firmly in the image and likeness of God our Creator.

Part of the challenge of our day is to ignore the choices made by others and content ourselves with our own good choices which uplift, and determine a better tomorrow for ourselves and society.

Let us pray for those who have changed their minds or way of life and turned away from God. May they experience afresh the fervour of their early faith and experience anew God's gifts of peace and joy.
