BISHOP MICHAEL ROUTER VISITING OUR PARISHES In two weeks' time, on Sunday 11 October, Bishop Michael Router will make his first visit to our parishes here of Desertegney & Lower Fahan, and Burt, Inch & Fahan. We look forward to welcoming him warmly. Weather permitting, we will begin a walk from the Stone Jug at 12.30pm out to Father Hegarty's Rock for Mass there at 2.00pm. There will be transport available by bus from The Oratory Carpark via the Stone Jug to Ned's Point, and thereafter by golf buggy for those who could not be expected to walk that distance. The walk will be led by the Bishop. Like the disciples on the Road to Emmaus, we might discuss a few things about the life of the Church on the way. Friar Séamus Hegarty was Parish Priest of the territory now covered by the two parishes of Burt, Inch and Fahan and Desertegney & Lower Fahan. This will be a lovely opportunity for us to welcome the Bishop to this beautiful area and for him to experience the faith that lives in our hearts and homes here. After the Mass we will walk back to Ned's Point where transport will be available to take people back to the Stone Jug or The Oratory Carpark or on to Cockhill Hall where there will be tea & buns for everyone and a chance for the Bishop to meet us all. Bakers are invited to provide goods for the refreshments. If you are able to bake something please let the Parish Office know. In the event of bad weather, there is a Plan B. Please consider coming to this once off event and welcoming the Bishop warmly. Father Bradley
