CALENDAR FOR THE WEEK AHEAD

Sunday 27th God gives us the gift of repentance. In the parable of the two sons, Jesus holds up the example of the public sinners in his time being converted while the establishment figures refuse to listen to his message. Ezekiel reminds us that repentance is always possible, for the Lord remembers his mercy.

World Day of Migrants and Refugees.

Monday 28th St Lawrence Ruiz and companions: sixteen Christians, European and Asian, lay, clerical and religious, men and women, who in various times and circumstances worked for the spread of the faith in the Philippine Islands, Formosa and Japan, martyred in the Japanese city of Nagasaki between 1633 and 1637.

Mass for the beginning of the school year at 11am in St Pius X.

Tuesday 29th Saints Michael, Gabriel and Raphael, the three Archangels mentioned by name in the scriptures. Gabriel brought God's message to Mary in the Annunciation; Raphael was guide to Tobias and was instrumental in curing the blindness of his father; Michael is the great protector of God's people. The name Michael means "who is like God"; Raphael "God heals" and Gabriel "God is strong".

Wednesday 30th St Jerome (340-420). A man of great asceticism and great learning, he translated the Bible into Latin and wrote a number of scripture commentaries.

Thursday 1st October St Thérèse of the Lisieux. Marie François Thérèse Martin died at the Carmelite Convent in Lisieux on 30 September 1897. She was declared a Doctor of the Church by Pope John Paul II in 1997, and is the patron of the Missions, florists, aviators and France.

Friday 2nd The Guardian Angels, through whom God loves, protects and guides us.

Saturday 3rd Blessed Columba Marmion (1858-1923). A Dublin priest, who later joined the Benedictines and became Abbot of Maredsous in Belgium. Through his writings he has had an influence far beyond his monastery and for long after his death. Beatified in 2000.

Sunday 4th 11.30am Mass will be celebrated in Ballybrack. Reader at this Mass will be Marion Boon.

Thank you for your generous financial support to the parish in the past week, which amounted to €3000.

Draw – tickets are ready for collection in porch of Parochial House with first draw on Monday 5 October.

Prayer for Vocations: In the words of St Paul in our second reading, we pray that the men called to serve as priests of our diocese will '...be united in their convictions and in their love.....with no competition among them, no conceit; but everybody self-effacing, always considering the other person to be better than themselves, each one thinking of other people's interests first.' "In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus." We pray to the Lord.

Are you 18 years or older and thinking or wondering about serving the Church as a priest of the diocese of Derry?
