Sunday 23rd August 2026 – Twenty First Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus asks his disciples a question that reaches across the centuries and speaks to every Christian: "Who do you say I am?" The disciples can easily repeat what others are saying, but Jesus invites them to move beyond public opinion to a personal profession of faith. Peter responds, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God," not because he has learned the right answer, but because he has come to know Jesus through walking alongside him. In a world filled with competing voices and opinions, the Lord still asks each of us the same question. Faith cannot rely solely on what others believe or what we learned long ago. It grows through our own experience of Christ's presence in our lives, especially in moments of joy, struggle, loss and hope. As we reflect on the Gospel this week, may we recognise anew the Lord who walks with us and find in him the firm foundation on which to build our lives.

READERS NEEDED AT MASS

Our parish is seeking new readers to proclaim the Word of God at weekend Masses. This is a valuable ministry that helps bring the Scriptures to life for our congregation. No previous experience is necessary, and full training and support will be provided. If you would be willing to serve in this important role, or would like to find out more, please contact the parish office or speak to one of the priests after Mass.

VOCATIONS

In this Sunday's gospel Peter acknowledges Jesus as the Christ, the Son of the living God, and Jesus confers on Peter "...the keys of the Kingdom..." an image reflected in the First Reading where the Lord says He will "...place the key of David..." on the shoulder of those called to lead His people, those who will be called "father."
