Reflection We can look at the parable in today's Gospel passage from the perspective of its historical context and from the perspective of its modern application.

To take the historical context: Who are the various participants in the story? The landowner is God the Father. The tenants are the chief priests and the elders of the people to whom the parable is addressed. The servants sent to collect the produce of the vineyard are the prophets. And finally, the son whom the landowner sent and who was rejected utterly and who was thrown out and killed by the tenants is Jesus.

This was a stark warning to the religious leaders of Jesus' day. They had rejected the prophets whom God had sent and they were rejecting Jesus and he was warning them that there would be dire consequences. Out of their own mouths they condemned themselves. He asked them what the landowner would do to the wicked tenants and they answered: 'He will bring those wretches to a wretched end.' Then having completed the telling of the story and having heard the response of the chief priests and the elders, Jesus opened their eyes to its meaning. He told them that he was the stone rejected by the builders who became the keystone. And then, lest there be any doubt he announced to them: 'I tell you, then, that the Kingdom of God will be taken from you given to a people who will produce its fruit.'

No doubt the chief priests and the elders were furious at being compared to faithless tenants; and no doubt they were furious at having been made to condemn themselves.

Now to the present day application: At a remove of two millennia we can feel quite smug and happily join-in in the condemnation of the wretched tenants. But we had better be careful. Could any of the things said to or about the tenants apply to us? Have we received God's messengers and listened to them. Have we received his Son with respect and reverence and listened to him and acted on his call to us? As people in whom the Holy Spirit dwells since our baptism and Confirmation, have we produced the fruits of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control which are the Lord's due and delivered them to him?

In as much as the parable was a wake-up call, so to speak, to the chief priests and the elders of the people of Jesus' day so it is to us.

Free Concert - Westchester Harmony Chorus

The Westchester Harmony Chorus, from the state of New York, present an evening of barbershop classics at St Joseph's Church, Limerick on Monday 12th October at 7pm.

We are a chapter of The Society for Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America (SPEBSQSA), otherwise known as the Barbershop Harmony Society. Our mission is to spread the joy of singing.

St. Francis and the Close of the Season

The Season of Creation concludes on 4th October, the Feast of St Francis of Assisi, making the saint's relationship with creation particularly significant. This year carries added meaning because 2026 marks the 800th anniversary of the death, or Transitus, of St. Francis. Pope Leo referred specifically to the anniversary when opening the Season of Creation. St Francis saw the natural world as something that continually points beyond itself towards God. His Canticle of the Creatures praises God through the sun, moon, water, fire, wind and earth. For parishes and schools already marking the 2026 Jubilee Year of St Francis, the season of Creation provides a natural opportunity to connect his spirituality of simplicity, peace, fraternity and care for creation with prayer and practical action today.

Let us continue to pray for those who are ill at this time, those who are preparing for and awaiting results of tests and those in hospital. Lord Jesus, you are the true friend of all those who suffer anguish and pain in spirit, mind or body. Please share with them now the gift of your consoling love.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.
I love you above all things,
and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.
