Memorare to the Sacred Heart.

Remember, O most sweet Jesus, that no one who has had recourse to Thy Sacred Heart, implored its help, or sought its mercy was ever abandoned. Encouraged with confidence, O tenderest of hearts, we present ourselves before Thee, crushed beneath the weight of our sins. In our misery, O Sacred Heart of Jesus, despise not our simple prayers, but mercifully grant our requests.

Day for Life 2026: Today, Sunday 21 June, the Church across Ireland celebrates Day for Life on the theme The humanity of the unborn child, which invites us to reflect on the wonder of human life from the moment of conception. We remember how the Lord Jesus Christ Himself sanctified and experienced the beginning of life in the world as an unborn child, hidden in the womb of Mary. Mary knew that she was carrying the Son of God - God and man - as soon as He was conceived. John the Baptist leapt in his mother Elizabeth's womb when Mary greeted her. Our Lady treasured Our Lord in her heart and womb until His birth. To read the full bishops' message visit www.councilforlife.ie

THE MYSTERY OF GOD’S LOVE

Trinity Sunday reminds us that God is not a distant, solitary figure but a communion of love — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. This is not a puzzle to be solved but a glorious mystery to be celebrated: that at the heart of all existence is love given and love received.

And that love overflows toward us. As the Gospel tells us, God loved the world so much that he sent his Son to save us from our sins, to show us how to live, and to rise victorious over death. Through the Holy Spirit, the Sacraments, and the Church, that same love is ours today. All we must do is believe it — and then let it change everything!

HYMNS FOR MASS

Holy God, we praise Thy Name;
Lord of all, we bow before Thee!
All on earth Thy sceptre claim,
All in Heaven above adore Thee;
Infinite Thy vast domain,
Everlasting is Thy reign.

Holy Father, Holy Son,
Holy Spirit, Three we name Thee;
While in essence only One,
Undivided God we claim Thee;
And adoring bend the knee,
While we own the mystery.

O God beyond all praising, we worship you today
And sing the love amazing that songs cannot repay;
For we can only wonder at every gift you send,
At blessings without number and mercies without end:
We lift our hearts before you and wait upon your word,
We honour and adore you, our great and mighty Lord.

Then hear, O gracious Saviour, accept the love we bring,
That we who know your favour may serve you as our king;
And whether our tomorrows be filled with good or ill,
We’ll triumph through our sorrows and rise to bless you still:
To marvel at your beauty and glory in your ways,
And make a joyful duty our sacrifice of praise

Day for Life 2026 Message: ‘The humanity of the unborn child’

“Every year our Day for Life falls on Father’s Day and we wish our fathers a blessed day. Today we remember with gratitude the loving care and direction our parents gave to us, whether they are still with us or have gone to the Lord.

Parenthood is a vocation of joys and hopes, of griefs and anxieties. On this year’s Day for Life, we would like to acknowledge the particular grief of mothers and fathers who have lost a child before birth or in infancy. Mother’s Day and Father’s Day can be especially difficult for parents who experience the loss of an infant. Such loss often takes its bodily toll upon the mother, and it can leave fathers feeling helpless and unsure of how to support their family, or of how to express their own grief.

The Church wants to be especially close to parents who have suffered the loss of an infant. We try to offer spiritual support through the pastoral care and blessing of our priests, and through the comfort of our liturgy. You only have to reach out to your priest or deacon if you would like to know more about this.

Just as importantly, many parents find consolation in their faith and its assurance that God has created, willed and deeply loves from all eternity every child, including those who lose their life before they are born or soon after. We have the LORD’s promise from the Scriptures that: “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born, I consecrated you” (Jer 1:5).

The Word of GOD reveals the sacred humanity of the unborn child and perhaps helps us understand why we feel such profound grief at the loss of a baby. Parents instinctively grasp how precious and unique the child is whom they have lost and whom they often name. They know how no other child can ever replace them.

From this perspective, how inconsistent is the language that the life in the mother’s womb is just a clump of cells. How can that life be a someone so precious and loved to parents and at the same time a mere something to be disregarded as worthless.

Science is clear that life begins at fertilisation when a new and unique living human being comes into existence. Every technological development in recent decades has given us insight into how life in the womb unfolds for each of us. At conception, our gender, genetic makeup, and eye and hair colour are already determined. As early as five weeks, our heart begins to beat. By ten weeks, we can move and respond to touch and, beginning two weeks later, we have the capacity to feel pain. By eighteen weeks, our mother can sense our movement in the womb. By twenty-seven weeks, we can recognise the voices of our parents. For some decades, parents have been able to observe some of these stages through ultrasound scans during pregnancy. The more we learn about the science, the more we understand the teaching of the Church on the unique value of the unborn baby.

This understanding, however, is not complete without the recognition that, from the beginning, every human being is not just a body but also an immortal soul, with a unique and eternal connection with God, our Creator.

It is because of what both science and faith reveal to us that the Church and many people of good will have always held that the unborn child merits the full protection of the law, and why we have always rejected elective abortion.

This Day for Life 2026, we reflect on the wonder of human life from the moment of fertilisation. We remember how the LORD Jesus Christ Himself sanctified and experienced the beginning of life in the world as an unborn child, hidden in the womb of Mary. Mary knew that she was carrying the Son of God – God and man – as soon as He was conceived. John the Baptist leapt in his mother Elizabeth’s womb when Mary greeted her. Our Lady treasured Our Lord in her heart and womb until His birth.

We, in our turn, commit ourselves to work and pray for our society to cherish the value of every little one, especially those at the earliest stage of human life, and to help our parish communities support all those in our midst who have suffered the loss of a child.”

Join us in the Belfast Jesuit Centre on Thurs 25th June at 7pm for Greta Gerwig's Barbie; our final Faith & Film screening before the summer break. Though bright and playful on the surface, the film offers a thoughtful reflection on truth, dignity, and the journey toward becoming who God created us to be. In the Ignatian spirit of "finding God in all things," we'll explore how even an unexpected story can open space for grace, insight, and good conversation. All are welcome. Small donation suggested. Belfast Jesuit Centre. 193 – 195 Donegall Street. Belfast BT1 2FL. Tel. 07955 282371

Statement by Bishop Alan McGuckian SJ in Response to Attack on Stephen Ogilvie and Recent Social Disorder 11th June 2026.

My thoughts and prayers are firstly with Stephen Ogilvie, who sustained life-changing devastating injuries in a brutal and horrific attack on Monday evening. I also pray for his family and pay tribute to their appeal for calm as they support Stephen. The quick response of the local community and the statutory authorities coming to his assistance undoubtedly saved his life. Over recent days, the streets of Northern Ireland and beyond have been marred by riotous behaviour and social disorder targeting family homes and businesses of migrants. People who have lived among us for years as good neighbours, friends and co-workers are now living in terror, for themselves and for their children. So many newcomers make an outstanding contribution to our communities, including our parishes. They are our friends. As a community we must stand in solidarity with them. Coordinated acts of senseless violence and destruction seek only to heighten tension across the community and must be condemned. Shame on all those who have sought to mobilise, agitate, weaponise and politicise the fear and concerns of others over the last few days. All of us have a responsibility to de-escalate societal tension rather than stoke the flames of racism. As a society, we also have a responsibility to address the real and tangible community concerns regarding safety and accountability, fears that demand honest, respectful attention. However, the destruction on our streets and the attacks on homes will not resolve any underlying issues, and violence will have to give way to dialogue and engagement. Into this space of meaningful conversation, politicians, community leaders and statutory agencies need to listen and act. In appealing for calm, I also call for support for the police and for community leaders. As a society, we in Northern Ireland have journeyed too far on the road to reconciliation and paid too high a price in a legacy of suffering to risk retreating into conflict and racial oppression. I ask that in all our parishes this weekend we pray for healing and peace and that the sacred dignity of each human person be upheld by all.

Offertory Promise Envelopes, for those who use them regularly, are available in the corridor beside the sacristy in Ardglass. If you haven't been getting them up to now and would like to start using them, please let us know.

'Baptised and Sent' Lenten Pastoral Letter from Bishop Alan McGuckian: The primary setting of lay ministry is not only within parish walls but in family life, in workplaces, in public service, in schools, in local communities, in the world of culture, politics, and social care. The everyday commitments of lay faithful are not distractions from their vocation-they are the very place where their vocation unfolds.

Vocation Prayer

O Jesus, I pray for your faithful and fervent priests;
for your unfaithful and tepid priests;
for your priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields;
for your tempted priests;
for your lonely and desolate priests;
for your young priests;
for your dying priests;
for the souls of your priests in purgatory.

But above all, I recommend to you the priests dearest to me:
the priest who baptized me;
the priests who absolved me from my sins;
the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me your Body and Blood in Holy Communion;
the priests who taught and instructed me;
all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way (especially ...). O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart,
and bless them abundantly in time and in eternity.

Amen.

Follow in Love

The first big moment of vocation is baptism. The anointing of chrism at baptism might be called the anointing for vocation.

The baptismal vocation is for witness, love and service. This is expressed in ways in which people live out their baptism in married life, single life - and within the single life, maybe religious life or priesthood.

Our active witness is to the life and the values of Jesus in our lives. Teaching is not itself a vocation, for example, but the way we teach is a way of living out our vocation. It is the same with many of the helping professions and employments. Being a good neighbour can be a living out of our vocation.

We witness to love in marriage, in family, extended family, and in friendship. Any love is a sharing in the love of God. In the moments of unselfish love in any relationship we are living out our vocation. When we love, we are doing God's will!

We witness to service in the wider world in our care for the poor and in welcoming the stranger: the widow, the orphan, the immigrant- in fact anybody needy .

In a place of silence, let the words 'Come, follow me' echo in your mind and heart.

*Lord, be with me as I offer myself in partnership with you to work in your world
and in whatever capacity you think best for me .*

Diocesan Vocations Prayer

God, our Father, at the very beginning of your Church your Son Jesus chose twelve apostles to continue the work he had begun. By the power of your Holy Spirit, they continued to bring the Good News of your love to our world. Send that same Holy Spirit into the hearts of those you are calling to serve as priests for your people in our diocese. Fill them with your gifts of wisdom, understanding, piety and knowledge as they discern your will. Give them the gifts of right judgement and courage in following their calling. Through the outpouring of your grace may many come to the joy of knowing and responding to the invitation of Jesus to "Come, Follow Me!"

Amen

Annual Parish Census 2026

A count of attendance takes place at all Masses this weekend, 25 & 26 April 2026. The annual parish census captures valuable information about the numbers, ages, and gender of people attending Mass. This information helps the Diocese and parishes to identify pastoral priorities, make plans to address them, and provide support to our faith communities. As you arrive at Mass, you are given a small counter for yourself and for each person in your family group and are asked to place the counters in baskets labelled according to age. Red counters for females and blue counters for males. The baskets are labelled with age bands and the number of counters for each age band are recorded after each Mass. Thank you for your patience and co-operation.

Liturgical 'Sign of Peace' The Sign of Peace remains an integral part of the celebration of the Eucharist and has been reintroduced as a normal practice across the Diocese. The customary expression of the Sign of Peace in Ireland is a handshake. However, other non-contact forms of the sign of peace such as a nod, a bow or a smile are also legitimate expressions of the Sign of Peace. No offence should be taken if someone prefers to express a non-contact Sign of Peace. The Diocese encourages all to continue to exercise good hygienic practices, and if you exhibit flu-like symptoms, you are encouraged to remain at home.

12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

21ST JUNE 2026

Readings: A (II) Psalter: Week IV

DAY FOR LIFE 2026

Today, Sunday 21st June, the Church across Ireland celebrates Day for Life on the theme The humanity of the unborn child, which invites us to reflect on the wonder of human life from the moment of conception. We remember how the Lord Jesus Christ Himself sanctified and experienced the beginning of life in the world as an unborn child, hidden in the womb of Mary. Mary knew that she was carrying the Son of God - God and man - as soon as He was conceived. John the Baptist leapt in his mother Elizabeth's womb when Mary greeted her. Our Lady treasured Our Lord in her heart and womb until His birth. To read the bishops' message in full, visit www.councilforlife.ie

THOUGHTS FOR FATHER'S DAY

FATHERS IN OUR LIVES

We give our thanks, Creator God, for the fathers in our lives. Fatherhood does not come with a manual, and reality teaches us that some fathers excel while others fail. We ask for Your blessings for them all and forgiveness where it is needed.

This Father's Day we remember the many sacrifices fathers make for their children and families, and the ways--both big and small--they lift children to achieve dreams thought beyond reach.

So too, we remember all those who have helped fill the void when fathers pass early or are absent; grandfathers and uncles, brothers and cousins, teachers, pastors and coaches and the women of our families.

For those who are fathers, we ask for wisdom and humility in the face of the task of parenting. Give them the strength to do well by their children and by You. In Your Holy name, O God, we pray. Amen

"A father is a man who has photographs in his wallet where his money used to be."
(Anonymous)

In the infant baptism ceremony, there is a special prayer of blessing for fathers. It says: “God is the giver of all life, human and divine. May he bless the father of this child. He and his wife will be the first teachers of their child in the ways of faith. May they also be the best of teachers, bearing witness to the faith by what they say and do, in Christ Jesus, our Lord”. On this Fathers’ Day, we give thanks for the witness that so many fathers have given, and continue to give, to their children in the ways of faith, not least by their faithful witness of going to Mass. Thank you for that.

NEWINGTON DAY CENTRE ANNUAL CHURCH DOOR COLLECTION. 27th & 28th June.

The Day Centre is experiencing the most difficult financial times of our 48 years of serving the community. The centre is a lifeline to many older people and family carers. We have reached out to many for support to save vital services. Sadly, without urgent help, we are in grave difficulty of closure. We thank all the parishioners, individuals, families and community organisations for their continued support of the Centre. Every penny given at the collection will go directly to the Centre. We thank you in advance.

There is a wealth of talents, interests and abilities within our parishes who with support could enrich parish life. We are keen to involve all parishioners, young and not so young.

We seek more volunteers to help with the Pastoral and Administrative needs of the parish and one of the ways to support the parish is by volunteering. Please encourage any friend or family member who may be very able but a bit shy to come forward. We would really welcome the younger members of our parishes and young adults and see them represented in our services.

Day for Life 2026 - Today, Sunday 21st June, the Church across Ireland celebrates Day for Life on the theme The humanity of the unborn child, which invites us to reflect on the wonder of human life from the moment of conception. We remember how the Lord Jesus Christ Himself sanctified and experienced the beginning of life in the world as an unborn child, hidden in the womb of Mary. Mary knew that she was carrying the Son of God - God and man - as soon as He was conceived. John the Baptist leapt in his mother Elizabeth's womb when Mary greeted her. Our Lady treasured Our Lord in her heart and womb until His birth. To read the full bishops' message visit www.councilforlife.ie

PARISH OF ST COLMCILLE

BALLYHACKAMORE

CORPUS CHRISTI

Pg 435 Year C

To know the joy of God's love
and make the love of God known to all

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

As Noleen steps down from her role after nearly 15 years of faithful and generous service to our parish, we want to offer our heartfelt thanks.

From her early days as our Youth Support Worker—walking alongside young people, leading summer schemes, school retreats and outreach events—to her more recent role as Pastoral Worker, Noleen has poured her energy, faith, and compassion into every aspect of parish life.

She played a vital role in shaping our youth ministry, supporting the Alpha programme with warmth and quiet leadership, and helping develop our Welcome Ministry into the gift of hospitality it is today

Through all of this—and much more—she has supported, encouraged, prayed with, and walked alongside so many in our parish. Noleen has been a calm and steady presence, someone who brought joy without fuss, wisdom without show, and a deep love for people and for God that always shone through.

Thank you, Noleen, for the years of patient service and wholehearted care. While your official role comes to a close, your legacy and friendship will remain deeply woven into our parish family. May the Lord bless and guide you in the next chapter of your journey.

Have a blessed week, Fr. Conor

The Sign of Peace remains an integral part of the celebration of the Eucharist and has been reintroduced as a normal practice across the Diocese. The customary expression of the Sign of Peace in Ireland is a handshake. However, other non-contact forms of the sign of peace such as a nod, a bow or a smile are also legitimate expressions of the Sign of Peace. No offence should be taken if someone prefers to express a non-contact Sign of Peace.
