PARISH DRAW – Wednesday 25th June, Hall, 9pm. Make sure you have paid in!

DAY FOR LIFE – Jesus sanctified the beginning of life as an unborn child, hidden in the womb of Our Lady. Mary knew she was carrying the Son of God – God and man – as soon as He was conceived. John the Baptist leapt in his mother Elizabeth's womb when Mary greeted her. Our Lady treasured Our Lord in her heart and womb until His birth. To read the full bishops' message visit www.councilforlife.ie FATHERS' DAY – If there's no self-sacrifice, it's not fatherhood! Fathers are givers.

FATHERS' DAY PRAYER – God our Father, we give You thanks and praise for fathers, young and old. May they find courage and perseverance in their vocation. May their lives follow the example of Saint Joseph, model in the protection and care of the family. We remember fathers, grandfathers and great-grandfathers who are no longer with us, but who guided us in the Faith, nourished us with their love and live forever in our memory. Through the prayers of St Joseph, may our fathers receive abundant blessings today.

40 HOURS ADORATION – Friday to Sunday, 3rd-5th July, Oratory. Please sign up!

NOVENA TO ST OLIVER PLUNKETT – 22nd - 30th June – Glorious Martyr, Saint Oliver, who willingly gave your life for your faith, help us to be strong in faith. May we be loyal like you to the See of Peter. By your intercession and example, may all hatred and bitterness be banished from the hearts of Irish men and women. May the peace of Christ reign in our hearts, as it did in your heart, even at the moment of your death. Pause for your own intentions. St Oliver Plunkett, pray for us and for Ireland.

CHURCH SIGN – Trouble sleeping? We have sermons. Come and hear one!

Whether it's for routine coordination or an emergency, having your Eircode at your fingertips can make all the difference. STAR OF THE SEA, DESERTEGNEY Masses streamed on www.youtube.com/@BuncranaParish Sunday 28 June - Mass at 9:45am		READINGS FOR 12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME First Reading: Jer 20:10-13. Jeremiah prophesied before and during the fall of Jerusalem around 600 BC. His people had opted for political intrigue rather than trust in Yahweh. Although Jeremiah was a gentle and loving man by nature, he was called nevertheless to prophecy against his nation, "to uproot and to knock down, to destroy and to overthrow." Today's reading reveals his internal struggle and his intimacy with God. His style of prophecy paved the way for the new covenant of Christian times, a covenant written in the heart. Second Reading: Rm 5:12-15. Estrangement from God, sin and death came to the whole world through Adam. But in God's great plan Adam's sin has turned out to have been 'a happy fault.' Though 'many died through Adam.....divine grace (life) came to so many, freely and in abundance ', through Christ. Gospel: Mt 10:26-33. Jesus urges his Apostles to be fearless in standing up for the Faith. No matter what false accusations are made the truth about everyone will one day be revealed. Nevertheless 'the erosion of faith and the de-Christianising of values can be frightening. But Christ says to all, 'Be not afraid.' (Liturgical Calendar for Ireland). STAR OF THE SEA, DESERTEGNEY Masses streamed on www.youtube.com/@BuncranaParish Sunday 28 June - Mass at 9:45am		READINGS FOR 12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME First Reading: Jer 20:10-13. Jeremiah prophesied before and during the fall of Jerusalem around 600 BC. His people had opted for political intrigue rather than trust in Yahweh. Although Jeremiah was a gentle and loving man by nature, he was called nevertheless to prophecy against his nation, "to uproot and to knock down, to destroy and to overthrow." Today's reading reveals his internal struggle and his intimacy with God. His style of prophecy paved the way for the new covenant of Christian times, a covenant written in the heart. Second Reading: Rm 5:12-15. Estrangement from God, sin and death came to the whole world through Adam. But in God's great plan Adam's sin has turned out to have been 'a happy fault.' Though 'many died through Adam.....divine grace (life) came to so many, freely and in abundance ', through Christ. Gospel: Mt 10:26-33. Jesus urges his Apostles to be fearless in standing up for the Faith. No matter what false accusations are made the truth about everyone will one day be revealed. Nevertheless 'the erosion of faith and the de-Christianising of values can be frightening. But Christ says to all, 'Be not afraid.' (Liturgical Calendar for Ireland). Sunday 21 June 2026
12th Sunday Of The Year

Even the Hairs on your Head are Counted

Today's Gospel is an affirmation for all those who feel persecuted in any way because of their beliefs or because people are speaking badly about them, or those who feel alienated from their community, their family or even from God. During such times it can be extremely lonely to the point where one can lose their sense of purpose in this world. While we might not want to shout from the rooftops, as Jesus suggests, there is a message here to speak out, to talk it out. Today, spend time on the beautiful words of Jesus in this Gospel – 'Even the hairs of your head are all counted, so do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows!' The sparrow, one of the smallest of birds, is cared for and loved by God. This is a reminder that no matter how insignificant we might feel or how challenging the circumstances get, God is with us, each of us. Once again, we are being told how sacred each and every person is and how much we are loved by God. In his eyes, each of us are precious. Today, recall the times or places where you felt God's supporting presence.

'When we travel through those wilderness places of our lives where we feel lost, insecure, lonely, frustrated, discouraged, or overcome by busyness: Help us to trust in you, God of the journey. When we catch glimpses of the tremendous love you have for us and experience a deep, loving connection with others: Help us to trust in you, God of the journey.'

In today's Gospel, Jesus encourages us to pray for vocations because there is a great need for workers in the abundant harvest of the Church and the world. We pray that those being called to do this work will respond generously.

We pray especially today for Stephen Baxter who will be ordained as a priest of the Diocese of Derry, in St Columb's Church, Waterside, Derry, this afternoon at 3.00pm, Sunday 14 June. May the Lord of the harvest bless Stephen in his ministry among us.

St John Vianney, pray for us.

June - Month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus: Throughout the month of June, the Church honours the Sacred Heart of Jesus, a reminder of Christ's great love for each one of us. Families are invited to pray often the simple aspiration, "Most Sacred Heart of Jesus I place all my trust in Thee" during this month. In particular, parents are encouraged to pray this short prayer with their children - perhaps before leaving in the morning, in the car, at tea time or before going to bed. May devotion to the Sacred Heart draw the families of our parishes ever closer to the loving Heart of Jesus.

Day for Life 2026

Today, the Church across Ireland celebrates Day for Life on the theme The humanity of the unborn child, which invites us to reflect on the wonder of human life from the moment of conception. We remember how the Lord Jesus Christ Himself sanctified and experienced the beginning of life in the world as an unborn child, hidden in the womb of Mary. Mary knew that she was carrying the Son of God - God and man - as soon as He was conceived. John the Baptist leapt in his mother Elizabeth's womb when Mary greeted her. Our Lady treasured Our Lord in her heart and womb until His birth.

To read the full bishops' message visit www.councilforlife.ie

As we mark Day for Life, the day in the Church's calendar when we come together to celebrate the dignity of all human life from conception to natural death. This year's theme is 'The Wonder of the Child in the Womb'. A child is a gift from God to be nurtured and cherished, but the theme also recognises the tragedy of babies who died before birth and the grief experienced by their parents and families. The bishops' message and prayers can be found on the website: www.dayforlife.org.

Thanks and appreciation

Fr. Peter McCawille, SMA and his family wish to express thanks to you all for your prayers, presence and support on the occasion of his Golden Jubilee Thanksgiving Mass in Dregish on Friday, 12th June. It was so heartwarming to see such a huge crowd of people representing the Castlederg parish (Ardstraw West) pastoral area, plus many from surrounding parishes, who took the trouble to attend the event. Huge thanks and appreciation to the organising committee and many other people who worked so diligently over the past few weeks to prepare for the Jubilee and were on the alert on the evening, making sure that everybody was comfortable and contented. In conclusion, thank you all for your cards and gifts. You will ever remain in my thoughts and prayers.

DAY FOR LIFE On this year's Day for Life, Sunday 21st June, we reflect on the wonder of human life from the moment of conception. We remember how the LORD Jesus Christ Himself sanctified and experienced the beginning of life in the world as an unborn child, hidden in the womb of Mary. Mary knew that she was carrying the Son of God – God and man – as soon as He was conceived. John the Baptist leapt in his mother Elizabeth's womb when Mary greeted her. Our Lady treasured Our Lord in her heart and womb until His birth. To read the full bishops' message visit www.councilforlife.ie

Granaghan Parish retreat a blessed time for all

by Rosemary O'Kane, Photographs by Seamus Lagan.

THE Granaghan Parish was greatly blessed by the presence of Sr Perpetua McNulty, Fr Paschal McDonnell and Geraldine Brolly, from Thornhill Ministries, who had been asked by the parish priest, Fr Charles Keaney, to lead a retreat from Sunday, February 24 until Wednesday, February 27.

It was made clear from the start that this was to be a retreat not a Mission, in the old sense of the word, so parishioners were a bit unsure what to expect at the beginning. The theme of the retreat was 'Threads of Healing and Hope' and this was developed into threads of belonging, meaning, forgiveness and serenity.

Morning Mass was followed by a short period of prayer and on the Tuesday there was the Morning Prayer of the Church, with participation from various parishioners. There was also an opportunity one morning for the Sacrament of Reconciliation with Fr Paschal.

On the first night, a centrepiece was created by parishioners using symbols representing some of the threads binding them together as a faith community and this remained in place throughout the retreat.

Forgiveness and acceptance were the themes for the second night and on the Tuesday there was a special prayer vigil of healing.

At the start of the retreat, parishioners were encouraged to write their mothers' and fathers' surnames on an altar cloth. During the liturgy of healing, these names were read out and then the cloth was carried to the front and used to dress the altar before Mass at 10 pm. It was a very beautiful and moving experience listening to the names of those who came before – the names were threads connecting parishioners to their community, their family members and members of Granaghan faith community through the ages.

The final session of the retreat was based around serenity and trust, and holding on to the threads which connect our parish to the Lord.

Throughout the retreat, there was a palpable sense of faith and holiness, and a willingness to participate, from the children in the school who were joined by Sr Perpetua and Geraldine to explore expressing their faith through music, stories and meditation, to the congregation in the church, and it was obvious that the Holy Spirit was at work.

Heartfelt thanks were extended to the team from Thornhill Ministries for leading us in this very special time of prayer, and everyone got a chance to express their appreciation and chat about the experience over a cuppa in the local primary school at the close of the retreat.

Granaghan Parish reaping the rewards as...

Re-energised Fr Keaney reflects on priesthood and importance of sabbatical DELIGHTED at the success of the Thornhill Ministries led retreat in Granaghan, parish priest, Fr Charlie Keaney described it as "a time of healing and nourishment". Saying that there was time for Adoration, Anointing, Confession, and Contemplation, as well as the celebration of the Eucharist and Prayer of the Church at the start and end of each day, Fr Keaney added: "It truly was a gift of the spirit time and, hopefully, we all now have more vision of each other and will have more involvement in day-to-day parish life. We have been restored!"

Having taken a much-needed sabbatical in 2016, after over 40 years in the priesthood – 13 of which were spent as parish priest of Dunboe, Macosquin and Aghadowey – Fr Keaney returned from that "restored" and able to bring a new energy to his role since as parish priest of Granaghan.

Reflecting on his path to the priesthood, the only child of the late Charles and Kathleen Keaney, Coleraine, recalled growing up in a home where faith and prayer were important. In addition, he was taught in St John's Primary School which was run by the Loreto nuns at the time, so faith was a big part of school life.

"I was an altar server from the age of nine in my parish church, and I loved it," said Fr Keaney, who went on to attend St Columb's College in Derry as a boarder.

"St Columb's," he pointed out, "was known then as the minor seminary and prayer was a big part of life there. We had daily Mass and visits to the Blessed Sacrament, and night prayer.

"So, I grew up surrounded by prayer. Religion was a very strong part of my life and when I was considering the priesthood, it occurred to me that perhaps I should be a missionary priest, but I was told that the Diocese needed priests. I wasn't sure, however, I decided to give it a go and it worked out."

Fr Keaney was ordained on June 1, 1975, in St John's Church, Coleraine, and went on to minister in: St Eugene's; Our Lady of Lourdes, Steelstown; Sacred Heart, Omagh; St Finlough's, Ballykelly; Buncrana; St John's, Coleraine; and now St John the Baptist, Granaghan (Swatragh).

Commenting on his sabbatical in 2016, when he retired as parish priest of Coleraine, Fr Keaney said: "It wasn't that I was living at some distance from my vocation, as I was busy, engaged and attentive, but somehow I was running on automatic; I was running on empty."

"I was doing what St Charles Borromeo had warned his priests against – I was so involved in the needs of others that I was neglecting my own well-being, spiritually and otherwise. So, I knew I was long overdue a sabbatical. Diocesan priests are very bad at taking time out because of the nature of the ministry and the decreasing number of priests, but it actually improves their ministry by giving time to reflect."

Fr Keaney booked a sabbatical programme by the Oblates of Mary Immaculate in San Antonio, Texas, that had been recommended to him and it turned out to be one of the best experiences of his life to date.

Advertised as a programme for the seasoned pastor, Fr Keaney said that it focused on the four key aspects of the biblical Sabbath – ceasing, resting, embracing and feasting!

"I knew the programme was going to be good," he recalled, "when I looked at the schedule and the lecturers, but it far exceeded my expectations. There was a generosity of time and space to refocus, to achieve more balance and integration in life.

"I returned from my sabbatical with a new attitude, strong trust, a gentle confidence and a fresh approach."

The programme included an eight-day guided retreat, a day of recollection every few weeks, and a faith sharing group once a week. They celebrated Mass as a group three times a week and joined the rest of the community on the campus for the Eucharist at other times.

"At weekends, we went around the parishes to attend Mass," recalled Fr Keaney, "and with Mexican, African and American Masses amongst those to choose from, it was great to experience the various liturgies."

Amongst the group of missionary and diocesan priests and religious on the programme with him were about five Irish people, including Fr Paddy O'Kane, PP Holy Family, Ballymagroarty, and others from Australia, Vietnam, Sri Lanka, South Africa, Canada and America.

The classes covered such areas as theology, spirituality, the environment, health and well being, and scripture, and Fr Keaney was delighted that Fr Ron Rolheiser OMI, the president of the Oblate School of Theology there, was one of the lecturers on the programme.

Highly recommending the very balanced programme and the taking of a sabbatical, the 69-year-old described his five months in Texas as one of the highlights of his life: "It is good to meet new people and discover new ideas, and become energised, renewed and refreshed."

He remarked: "St Paul says always be happy in the Lord. We are redeemed and we should look redeemed."

Looking back on his priesthood, Fr Keaney said: "It has been challenging at times but it is worthwhile. I am glad that I made that decision all those years ago. I love the pastoral work, meeting people, visiting the sick, preaching and visiting the schools. I just live an ordinary life and I feel very blessed with my vocation and my family and friends."

THE BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST SUNDAY 7 JUNE 2026

Amen!

Today we celebrate Corpus Christi - the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. We Catholics take Jesus at His word at the Last Supper when He took bread and wine and blessed them. Then, as He gave them to His disciples He said they were His Body and Blood. He didn't use the word "like." He didn't say they were symbols. He said, "This is My Body... This is My Blood."

When we receive Holy Communion the priest or Eucharistic Minister holds the sacred host in front of us and says, (This is the) "Body of Christ." Our response is "Amen" which means "It is true." It's our way of expressing our belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

Sadly, many people say nothing at all or mutter their "Amen". The same is sometimes true with the responses to the prayers of the Mass. Perhaps as we celebrate Corpus Christi this weekend we can pledge ourselves to being more fervent in expressing our Catholic faith.

We pray for the men who will serve the Church as priests of our diocese, that their faith in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist will be strengthened as they share the Body and Blood of Christ with their brothers and sisters.

The Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, which falls this year on Friday 12 June, is World Day of Prayer for Priests. We pray for Fr Pat and all priests through the intercession of St John Vianney, Patron of Priests, and St Catherine of Siena who held in very high regard the souls of priests because of the ministry entrusted to them.

Our Parish Cemeteries

There has been noticeable increase in dog fouling in the cemeteries of the parish. A number of families have had the distressing experience of their family graves being fouled on.

The added hazard is that with the grass cutting the fouling is dispersed by lawn mowers and strimmers. This causes contamination of graves, floral arrangements as well as visitors and those who are grass cutting. It is a particular hazard for your children who are always welcome visitors. (Sadly, I know of one child who lost an eye due to dog fouling.)

So we ask, in order to protect each other that dogs are not to be taken into the cemeteries but be secured at the perimeter to allow owners to visit their family graves and to allow others a healthy visit.

Thank you for your co-operation.

12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said: Do not be afraid. In the Scriptures, fear is identified as the single greatest enemy of life and love. That statement do not be afraid is spoken 365 times in the Scriptures. The greatest fear that grips people is of what it is going to cost to really believe, to love, to enjoy. Fear of the cost can make us set limits to our love. And fear can make us set limits to our willingness to let God into our lives. As always, we need to think about this word of Christ in terms of the relationships of our lives and our faith. In every community very many people don't get involved in anything other than the minimum. This doesn't mean that these people are bad natured, but it is mostly because of this fear. Men particularly are afraid of developing the intimate relationships of marriage and family life for the same reason - they are afraid of the cost to themselves and they miss out on the rewards. Listen to Christ's word this week.

CALENDAR FOR THE WEEK AHEAD

Sunday 21st Day for Life The followers of Jesus must have courage at all times. Christ has promised support in times of trial. Death and imprisonment for Christ are realities for many Christians. The erosion of faith and the dechristianising of values can also be frightening. But Jesus says to us all "Be not afraid".

Monday 22nd St John Fisher and St Thomas More. Both resisted the claims of King Henry and were martyred in 1535.

Wednesday 24th The Nativity of St John the Baptist. We rejoice at the coming of St John the Baptist, a man of self-denial, integrity of life and purpose, and an uncompromising prophetic voice. John means 'The Lord has shown favour'. The feast relates to the summer solstice, when the days begin to grow shorter, recalling John's words, 'He must increase, but I must decrease'.

Saturday 27th St Cyril of Alexandria (370-444). A strenuous opponent of Nestorianism and a strong influence at the Council of Ephesus (431), which declared Mary, Mother of God.

Sunday 28th First Anniversary Mass for Brigid O'Mahoney at 10am in St Pius X.

11.30am Mass will be celebrated in Ballinacrae.

Mass this week in St Pius X: Monday to Friday 10am. Saturday 6.30pm; Sunday 10am.

Confessions in St. Pius X Church: Saturday 5.45pm to 6.15pm.

The Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet will be recited in St. Pius X Church, Moville, at 7.30 pm every day, from Sunday – Friday. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Monday, 2-9pm; Wednesday, 6-9pm.

We offer our sympathy to the families and friends of Anne McElroy, Foyle View, John Kelly, O'Gara Villas, Jim Harkin, Foster Terrace and Sheila Canning, Shrove who died recently. May they rest in peace.

Prayer for Vocations: As we pray for seminarians and those considering priesthood we hear Jesus telling those who 'declare themselves' for Him and 'commit their cause to Him' not to 'be afraid' but, instead, to know that "God is at [their] side, a mighty hero." (Jeremiah, First Reading). We pray to the Lord.

"It is to the glory of my Father that you should bear much fruit and then you will be my disciples." Are you being called to love the Lord and His people as a priest, sister or brother? Anyone interested in serving the Church as a priest of the diocese of Derry should contact the diocesan Vocations Director, Fr Pat O'Hagan, PP Bellaghy and Greenlough, at 0487938 6259 or at pgoh2111@gmail.com

A short reflection on today's Gospel Matthew 10: 26-33

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus speaks words of encouragement to His disciples: "Do not be afraid." He knows that following Him will bring challenges, opposition, and moments of uncertainty. Yet He reminds them that they can place their trust completely in God's loving providence.

Jesus uses the beautiful image of the sparrows, creatures of little value in the eyes of the world, yet never forgotten by God. If the Father cares for them so attentively, how much more does He care for each one of us? We are known, loved, and cherished by God in a deeply personal way. Even the hairs of our head are counted. Nothing in our lives escapes His loving gaze.

These words invite us to examine the fears that may hold us back from living our faith more fully. Fear of failure, fear of rejection, or fear of standing out can prevent us from speaking and acting as disciples of Christ. Jesus calls us instead to trust in God's care and to witness to the Gospel with confidence and hope.

As we reflect on this passage, let us remember that our true security is found not in worldly approval or success, but in our relationship with God. Knowing that we are precious in His sight gives us the courage to live faithfully and to acknowledge Christ in our daily lives. May we hear again the Lord's reassuring voice: "Do not be afraid," and respond with renewed trust, faith, and joy.

Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood: As we pray for seminarians and those considering priesthood, we hear Jesus telling those who 'declare themselves' for Him and 'commit their cause to Him' not to 'be afraid' but, instead, to know that "God is at [their] side, a mighty hero." (Jeremiah, First Reading).
