Recent Bereavement: We pray for the happy repose of the soul of Mary Donlon Clonker, Moydow whose funeral took place in St. Mary's Church, Moydow on Friday. Sympathy to her husband Padraig, to Claire, Rachel, John and his fiancée Rachel and Sheá, to her sisters, brother, sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, and to all her relatives and many friends. May she rest in peace.

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time: Often we light candles as a sign of remembering and as we light the candles we say a prayer for that person that they may be enjoying the marvellous light of heaven. The candle's light reminds us that we too have the opportunity to share the light of hope that we carry with others. When you are in a dark place, the warmth of a smile or a kind word can mean a lot. It may feel that our own light is very small and insignificant in times of much darkness but each time it is shared, we really can make a difference. Today's Gospel is a powerful reminder to Christians to live each day as if it were their last, and to keep watch for the signs of the times. By doing so, we can live more fully and with greater purpose, and we can be prepared for whatever the future holds for us.

† Remembering our loved ones in November †

Remembrance Mass will take place in St. Brigid's Church, Ardagh on Wednesday 11th November at 7:30 pm. This mass is for all who died in the parish of Ardagh and Moydow in the past year, and also for all those living in our parish who had a bereavement outside of the parish. All are welcome to attend.

Also, November prayers will be held after Holy Mass in Ardagh on Sunday 15th November and also in Moydow Cemetery on the same Sunday at 1:30pm. May they rest in peace.

Roscommon Solstice Choir: We welcome the Roscommon Solstice Choir to St. Brigid's Church, Ardagh this Sunday morning for the 11:30am. Mass. It is a lovely honour to have them here. This choir is known not only in Ireland but internationally, having performed for many charities in different areas both at home and abroad. They were involved in the very successful production of "A Nation Once Again", staged in Roscommon Arts Centre and in The Backstage Theatre, Longford. I had the great opportunity to be their chaplain on the pilgrimage to Medugorje a few weeks ago, and it was here they performed a concert for the local orphanage in Mothers Village and raised over €7,000 for that great cause. We continue to wish them our blessing in their Christmas Concerts and in the year of 2027.

Christmas Carol Service: A beautiful Christmas Carol Service will take place in the Church of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Legan on Friday 18th December at 6pm. Our adults and young people will be involved in the choir. All are welcome to attend.

Legan & Ballycloghan Collections: Many thanks for your generosity to these collections:

BE -PREPARED.- Have your oil in your Lamp: Our gospel reading today teaches us that there is a time when the door will be closed to those who are not prepared. It speaks to us to make the kind of choices in life that will facilitate our admission into the kingdom of God. The parable further calls us to abandon a life of carelessness, foolishness and presumption. We are all called to be always conscious of our eternal purpose, to be vigilant, watchful, prayerful, attentive, and prudent while we live this life. To escape the predicament of the foolish virgins, we must cultivate the habit of regular meditations, constantly asking ourselves such critical questions, on the need that we should always be ready in our lives. For the master to meet us prepared, and our lamp of faith must be kept burning, we must constantly fill the lamp with the oil of faithfulness and obedience, humility, sacrificial love, compassion, chastity and purity. To live otherwise, is to be like the foolish bridesmaids who were unprepared when the master arrived. our first reading sees wisdom as a sure way to the realizations of our purpose in life – to seek and find God and enjoy his company here and in the eternity. What wisdom does is to put us on the path and help us to develop the disciplines of the faith so that we may realize this purpose

Novena Prayer to St. Martin de Porres

Most humble St. Martin whose burning charity embraces all, but especially the sick, afflicted or in need, we turn to you for help in our present difficulties and we implore you to obtain for us from God health of soul and body, and in particular the favour we now ask.
May we, by imitating your charity and humility, find quiet and contentment all our days, and cheerful sub-mission to God's holy will in all the trials and difficulties of life. St. Martin, pray for us that we may be worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen.
O God who exalts the humble and who made St. Martin your confessor to enter into the heavenly Kingdom, grant through his merits and intercession that we may so follow the example of his humility on earth as to deserve to be exalted with him in Heaven. Through Christ Our Lord Amen.

Back in Áras Phádriag on Wednesdays @ 2.00p.m. Everyone welcome.

Ceremony of Remembrance on Sunday 29th November @ 5 p.m. in Parish Church.

After six weeks of convalesces, I am so happy "to be home again" in Drumshanbo. My prayer at this time is simply a prayer of gratitude more than words can say…

It is a prayer of thanks that nobody else was seriously hurt on the evening of Sept 23rd, especially my pilgrimage friends Joe & Ann returning with me from Lourdes on that evening.

It is a prayer of thanks for my friends in the Fire Service, for their calm reassurance on that evening and for the guards and ambulance personnel who could not be kinder and for (Phil for that cups of tea).

It's a prayer of thanks for the Staff of Sligo Hospital, all of them, so many of them not born in Ireland, for their care and courtesy at all times.

It is a prayer of thanks for all of you who sent cards, texts and get well wishes and above all for your prayers and Masses that helped me every day. It is a prayer of thanks for the children who sent such beautiful cards of kindness and a video prayer from the School—such a lovely thought.

It's a prayer of thanks for all my priest colleagues who covered all the Masses, Baptisms, Weddings and Funerals. I will be forever in their debt.

It is a prayer of thanks for Sr. Mary, Sr. Helen and Parish Staff who took care of you and everything in my absence.

It is a prayer of thanks for my friends who gave me space in their homes to recover. It is a prayer of thanks for the daily prayer of the Poor Clares—I was so sad to miss the Feast of St. Francis this Jubilee Year.

I am blessed by your friendships, humbled by your goodness and inspired so by so much kindness. I thank you. I thank God for you. I pray I may never take you for granted. (Fr. Frankie)

Sunday Scriptures - First Reading - This sings the praise of wisdom. At the same time it says that wisdom can be found by all those who seek it.

Second Reading - St Paul consoles his converts at Thessalonika who are worried about the fate of their loved ones who have died. He tells them that God will rise them up as surely as he raised up Christ.

Gospel - A story which urges us to stay awake because we do not know the day or the hour of the Lord's coming.

SUNDAY REFLECTION - As we approach the end of the Church's liturgical year, the readings are mostly from those sections of scripture called apocalyptic. This is a very symbolic style of writing. Numbers and colours all have a symbolic meaning. It is frequently full of cosmic images including sun, moon and stars. It is a very vivid style of writing which is geared to evoke a response in those who read it. - St Paul's Sunday Missal

EDGEWORTHSTOWN PARISH WEBSITE:

And for our Children - Agus ar son ár leanaí - A fun way for Catholic children to learn about their Faith every week:
The Kids' Bulletins, updated each week onto our Parish Website front page, are a resource for Catholic children who would like to have some fun while learning about the readings from the Sunday Mass every week.
They are made by a mom in Canada who is happy to share them with anyone who can use them to help learn or teach about the truth and beauty of the Faith.

Pope Leo: - "God's generosity towards us is not naïve but wise. He sees within us the potential of a good that, at times, we ourselves might fail to recognize. For this reason, the Lord, who knows the soil of our hearts better than we, never ceases to believe in us - in who we are and in who we can become, day by day, if we entrust ourselves to him in faith."

Readers and Eucharistic Ministers - As a recent meeting of Mostrim Parish Pastoral Council the rotas for Readers and Eucharistic Minsters were reviewed. We are very grateful to all who generously participate in these ministries of sharing God's Word and Holy Communion. We would love to have some more people involved to enhance our rotas and share the responsibility.

Could you assist - please?

We would be delighted to hear from you if you could volunteer to read at Mass or become a Minister of the Eucharist. Please consider this invitation. If you are in a position to say yes, please contact us at 71046 or edgeworthstownparish@gmail.com

• Thought for Today •

Often we light candles as a sign of remembering and as we light the candle we say a prayer for that person that they may be enjoying the marvelous light of heaven. The candle light reminds us that we too have the opportunity to share the light of hope, that we carry, with others. When you are in a dark place, the warmth of a smile or a king word can mean a lot. It may feel that our own light is very small and insignificant in times of much darkness but each time it is shared, it is not halved but doubled. Together we really can make a difference. - Artofdyingwell.org

32nd Sunday of the Year

'Stay awake'

Every year thousands of motorists seek roadside assistance because they have run out of fuel and this despite the fact that all modern cars have warning lights and messages to alert us to any malfunction. In truth, there is no excuse for running out of fuel. It is a question of remaining vigilant and attentive. The five wise virgins in today's parable fall into this category. They are watchful and prepared for the arrival of the bridegroom. The five foolish virgins are not, and they are excluded from the wedding celebrations. The message is clear. The disciple must stay awake. The disciple must remain watchful. The disciple must keep the lamp lit. It is easy to keep the lamp lit when the road is smooth and the sea is calm. The trial comes when the storm rages and the bridegroom is absent, but the disciple must stay awake. What does this mean in practice then? English author Richard Evans provides a striking answer to this question when he writes about the danger of putting things off: 'There are mothers who plan to enjoy their daughters more, but they keep putting it off. There are fathers who plan to get to know their sons better, but they keep putting it off. There are husbands and wives who plan to spend more time together, to strengthen their marriage bond, but they keep putting it off. When in the world are we going to live as if we understood that this is life? This is our time, our day and it is passing.' Unlike the foolish virgins, we should use our time well, because it is the anvil on which eternity is forged. 'We should live our lives as though Christ was coming this afternoon'. (Jimmy Carter).

REFLECTION

Belief in the resurrection of the dead is an essential part of Christian revelation. It implies a particular understanding of the ineluctable mystery of death. Death is the end of our earthly life, but 'not of our existence' (St Ambrose) since the soul is immortal.

'Our lives are measured by time, in the course of which we change, grow old and, as with all living beings on earth, death seems like the normal end of life' (CCC, 1007).

Seen from the perspective of the faith, 'death is the end of man's earthly pilgrimage, of the time of grace and mercy which God offers him so as to work out his earthly life in keeping with the divine plan, and to decide his ultimate destiny' (CCC, 1013).

Death is the passage to the fullness of true life.

Death is the prolongation, in a new way, of life as the liturgy says: 'For your faithful, O Lord, life has changed not ended; while our earthly dwelling is destroyed, a new and eternal dwelling is prepared for us in Heaven' (Missal, Preface). The death of a Christian is an event of grace, having as it does, a positive value and significance in Christ and through Christ. According to the faith of the Church, 'to die in Christ' begins at baptism. In Baptism, the Lord's disciples sacramentally die in Christ so as to live a new life.

From the earliest days of the Christian religion the Church has honoured with great respect the memory of the dead. The whole month of November is an interesting time of prayer in the Church as it is filled with many important feast days and it includes the days on which we commemorate all the saints and all the faithful departed.

ESB OUTAGE - Please note there will be no electricity supply to the Cathedral on Wednesday next, 11th November from 9am to 5.30pm. This means there will be no lighting, heating or sound amplification.

ANNUAL MASS for Deceased Staff Members of Lanesborough ESB will be held in the Parish Hall, Lanesborough (beside the Bridge) on Wednesday 18th November at 8pm. All are welcome.

With the escalating cost of heating oil, we would appreciate if everyone would ensure the doors of the Cathedral are closed at all times and the hooks are not used to hold the doors open.

RESPONSE: For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God.

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 25: 1-13

Jesus told this parable to his disciples:
'The kingdom of heaven will be like this:
Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to m were foolish and five were sensible: the foolish brought no oil, whereas the sensible ones took
The bridegroom was late, and they all grew dro
midnight there was a cry, "The bridegroom is h
At this, all those bridesmaids woke up and trimmed their lamps, and the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, "Give us some of your oil: our lamps are going out".
But they replied, "There may not be enough for us and for you; you had better go to those who sell it and buy some for yourselves".
They had gone off to buy it when the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding hall and the door was closed. The other bridesmaids arrived later. "Lord, Lord," they said "open the door for us."
But he replied, "I tell you solemnly, I do not know you".
So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.'

CALLED TO SERVE: A day of Support and Inspiration for Parish Ministry on Saturday 21st November - 10am-3pm - in Knock Shrine. Are you involved in ministry in your parish, as a Minister of the Eucharist/Word, Sacristan, member of the parish choir, interested in developing a Sensory Mass or interested in becoming involved, visit https://knockshrine.ie/upcoming-events/

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION Would you like to assist at Mass as an extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion? We are now looking for new volunteers for this important Ministry in the Parish. To know if you are suited or suitable, you can ask yourself: Do I practice my faith [Sunday Mass every week]? Do I have a love for the Holy Eucharist? Do I live in accordance with the Gospel as the Church teaches? Do I desire to be of service to the parish? Do I desire to grow in my faith? We all have failings and the inner life of the soul is known only to God. Training will be provided. We would like to see candidates come forward who attend Sunday mass regularly, especially younger attendees and recent retirees.

Life messages: 1) We need to be wise enough to remain ever prepared: Wise Christians live each day in the light of Jesus' vision. Such people find Him in the most ordinary experiences of daily living – in the people they meet, the events that take place, and the situations in which they find themselves. They carefully make their daily choices for God. They are ready to put the commandment of love into practice by kindness and forgiveness. There is absolutely no better way to prepare for the final call than to learn to spend each day in Jesus' company, remembering the assurance, "I am with you always." The following short prayer should be always on their lips: "Lord, grant that all my thoughts, intentions, actions and responses may be directed solely to Your love and service this day. Help me, Lord, to seek, to find, and to respond to You in every single experience this day." When we eventually hear the final call, "Get up! The Master is coming!" we will not be worried, but happy and more than ready to meet Him, as well as old friends and family, in Heaven. God has made this promise to us: "Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever".

2) Let us be sure that our Lamps are ready for the end of our lives: Spiritual readiness, preparation, and growth do not just happen. They come as a result of intentional habits built into one's life. We cannot depend on a Sunday morning Mass to provide all our spiritual needs. We cannot depend on Christian fellowship to provide us with spiritual development. These things come through routine, mundane attention to ordinary spiritual disciplines – making sure we have enough oil: spiritual fuel. They come when we habitually take time for prayer and being alone with God. They come through reading God's Word; living a sacramental life; performing acts of service for others; being morally faithful; obeying God with love, and spending time with other Christians for mutual prayer, study, and encouragement. These are the things which, along with the normal difficulties of life, enable one to grow in Christ and to be prepared for Christ's coming. Without these things, we will not be prepared. The preparation cannot be hit-or-miss, nor can it be postponed. We dare not procrastinate, lest death come unexpectedly and ruin us. We need to develop those things which encourage our spiritual growth into holy habits in our lives, for that growth must take precedence over other interests and claims on our time and attention. As these habits become entrenched, they cease to be a struggle for us and begin to be a source of strength and blessing. They make our lives powerful against the onslaught of the world.

3) What is the oil that we lack? Oil in Scripture is often a symbol for the Holy Spirit. Perhaps we try to spring into action without first submitting our work to the Holy Spirit. Or perhaps we lack the oil of kindness and compassion. There's no way we can be ready to meet Jesus without the essential oils of compassion and mercy. Perhaps we lack the oils of patience, sympathy, and empathy. Without such oils, we are ill-equipped to deal with someone who comes to us in need of comfort, instruction, enlightenment, healing, or Jesus' peace of mind and heart. .

A LITTLE THEOLOGY 'BODILY RESURRECTION'

At the very core of catholic faith and hope is the profession of the resurrection of the body on the last day, we believe that at the end of time, every human soul will be permanently reunited with a real, material and transformed body. The church sees the human being as both body and soul an essential of both, salvation in not just the escape of the soul,but the redemption of the entire person The physical resurrection of Jesus is the model and source for the longed for resurrection of all people. Unlike many religions and philosophies that view the material world as either evil of passing ,the church proclaims the dignity of the body and the material world as good, because they were made by God, and He proclaims all that he has made as good. For the faithful the resurrected body will share in the qualities of Christ glorified, it will be incorruptible and immortal, it remains physical, yet will be completely subject to the spirit and the life of God.

RED NOVEMBER

This year Aid to the church in need will once again draw the attention of the church and the world to the ongoing persecution of the church throughout the world. Each year there are 1000s of acts of violence, murder, confiscation of property and restrictions on christians human rights. On Nov 18th churches are asked to highlight this persecution, to pray for our brothers and sisters in their need.

PASTORAL COUNCIL MEETING.

The pastoral council meet last week to discuss the continued growth and development of the parish faith community, among the items discussed and agreed upon here the inclusion of the remembrance tree in both churches, where you are invited to put the names of your loved one on the tree during the month of Nov The annual Christmas Carol service will take place on Monday Dec 21st in Boherquill. Each parish has a connection to a saint in Rathowen it is St Dermot and in Streete it is St Fintan, little is known of either saint and there is no feast day associated with either saint.The Pastoral council have assigned June 15th too St Dermot and August 19th to St Fintan. In the coming years it is hoped to hold a patron on the respective feast days.

NOVEMBER THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

In Ireland November holds a special the time we recall the dead, pray for them visit their graves, in Greece the bring olives and cheese to the grave and share a meal, while in Italy families pour wine on the graves of their family member and the Spanish visit their local church 7 times and pray for the dead. In Belgium and Holland children go from house to house asking for 'Soul cakes' and promise to pray for the dead of the family, In parts of Peru families leave lit candles in the window telling the departed that the residents are praying for the souls in Purgoratory.
