Searching for Ancestors

In an effort to assist those who wish to trace ancestors from this parish, information from all headstones in St Martin's cemetery, Farnivane, is now available on www.findagrave.com. To access this information, click on the webpage, then click on the tab 'cemeteries', enter Farnivane under Cemetery Name and hit search. This gives a complete list of all those interred in St Martins.
Alternatively, enter the name of the deceased in the search area but be aware that the location of the cemetery is listed as Bandon.

Parish Phone Number

The parish phone number is 086 4426345.
The priest on duty for Murragh & Templemartin for the week will have access to this phone.

Murragh and Templemartin Parish – part of a Family of Parishes

Murragh and Templemartin is now part of a Family of Parishes which also includes Bandon, Enniskeane & Desertserges, Innishannon/Knockavilla and Kilbrittain
Murragh & Templemartin does not have a resident parish priest. The pastoral needs of the parish are covered by the other priests in our Family of Parishes. These priests reside outside of the parish of Murragh & Templemartin but minister across the whole family of parishes. Fr John Newman (Bandon) is the moderator.

Gospel Reflection:
Be persistent… and patient…

Our Gospel today is about persistence… just as the widow in the story pesters the judge until he delivers a just decision we too are called to be persistent.

Persistence in prayer demonstrates that we are not afraid to show our dependence on God even though all around us society says we need be self-sufficient, to look after ourselves. To keep praying is equally looking after ourselves but also the needs of those around us and the needs of our world. The widow in the story is concerned about the delay in getting a response, however we must not only must persevere in prayer we must be patient, awaiting God's time for an answer and accepting the answer even though it may not be one we wanted! God will always give the right answer to our prayers, even if in the immediate moment it may not seem that way.

Take time to reflect on what have been the fruits of your own persistent prayer? When you have patiently waited for God's time and response…
