Entrance Hymn: Holy God, we praise thy name

Holy God, we praise thy name;

Lord of all, we bow before thee.

All on earth thy sceptre own,

all in heav'n above adore thee.

Infinite thy vast domain,

everlasting is thy reign.

Hark, the loud celestial hymn,

Angel choirs above are raising;

Cherubim and seraphim,

In unceasing chorus praising,

Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord,

Holy, holy, holy Lord.

Reflection on Today's Gospel: What does the term 'apostle' mean?

It is someone who is sent. Jesus himself was sent by the Father to reveal God to the world and to redeem humanity. Jesus chose twelve of his followers and they acted as his core group of collaborators. Their closeness to Jesus over the time of his public ministry was a preparation for their mission in life. Just as Jesus had been sent by the Father, Jesus in turn sent out his twelve disciples to make him known, initially to the Jews and eventually to the whole world. In today's gospel he tells them: 'And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is close at hand' (Matthew 10:7). Later in that gospel we read the Great Commission, i.e. Jesus' final sending out of his apostles:

All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age (Mt 28:18-20)

This commission is now the responsibility of the whole Church, not just the successors of the apostles. Pope Francis proposed this extension of the apostolic mission to all Christians as synodality. Pope Leo has continued this emphasis on synodality from the beginning of his papacy.

What is Synodality?

The term ‘synodality’ owes its origin to two Greek words sun (with) and hé hodos (the road/journey): we journey on the one road together. The basis of synodality is the Incarnation: the Son of God became one of us and joined us on the journey of life with its joys and sorrows, until he met with a most brutal death. And he continues to journey with us: ‘And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age’ (Mt 28:20). We too need to journey together. Though we have different functions in the Church and different vocations, nonetheless, we are all travelling together. The term ‘synodality’ owes its origin to two Greek words sun (with) and hé hodos (the road/journey): we journey on the one road together. Who’s Who? The members of the funeral team are as follows: Fiacra Bracken, Bernadette Hegarty, Maeve Kennedy, and Christine O’Neill. They lead the prayers at the reposing in the funeral home the day prior to the funeral Mass. This is a sensitive ministry, and they need our prayers.

Mass at St. Michael's Cemetery, Blackrock

Wednesday 24th June, at 7.30 pm.

Weekend Mass Collection Last weekend the amount received was €1,035

Trocaire Collection raised €1,454 this year.

Recent Deaths The death has occurred of Ann Dore, Greenhills Court; Brother Germanus (Ger) Noonan, Maiville Presentation Community. May they rest in peace. Sincere sympathy to their families and community.

Recessional Hymn: Praise to the Lord

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation! O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation! Come, all who hear; now to his temple draw near, join me in glad adoration.	Praise to the Lord, let us offer our gifts at his altar: Let not our sins and transgressions now cause us to falter. Christ, the high priest, bids us all join in his feast, Victims with him on the altar.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ Year A

Gospel Reflection
The non-negotiables …

Have you noticed how often the term "non-negotiables" comes up in discussions lately? Each side seems to set out its non-negotiables before any conversation can begin.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is asked which commandment matters most. His answer offers two essentials for anyone who calls themselves Christian: love God and love your neighbour. These commandments belong together. They shape all that we give and receive—in our relationship with God and in our relationships with one another. Simply put, life begins and ends with love.

We see these two movements in the cross. Through Jesus, we reach upward towards God, offering our love. And with Jesus, we reach outward towards the people around us, loving them as he does. These are the foundations of our lives as his disciples.

Take a moment this week to reflect on these movements: How do you show your love for God? How do you show your love for others?

Sunday Gospel.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Cycle A).

Always pray to have eyes that see the best in people, a heart that forgives the worst, a mind that forgets the bad, and a soul that never loses faith in God.

It is only when we know that God has demonstrated his life giving love for us in his Son, that we will want to love God in return with all our heart, soul, and mind. The opening words of Jesus' was not a commandment, but a proclamation of the Good News – "the kingdom of God is at hand", "the reign of God's life giving, merciful love is at hand". Perhaps in the past, we were introduced to the commandments without first hearing the Gospel. The commandments alone won't bring us to the Gospel, but hearing the Gospel as Good News for me personally, will lead us to taking the commandments seriously.

Mission Sunday Collection.

THANK YOU for your generous support of our Mission Sunday appeal last week. What we collected last weekend during our Second Collection, amounted to €1,260 and will be forwarded as our parish contribution, together with money collected over the past few weeks from the sale of second hand books and private donations. That amount comes to €750.

Together with our Sunday collection, the total amount being forwarded to Missio Ireland in support of mission work throughout the world comes to €2,010.

We thank those people donating books to keep our spiritual reading going in the parish.
