As our parishes prepare to welcome Fr Chris next weekend, Fr Thomas and I take this opportunity to wish him every blessing in his ministry in Aghyaran, Ardstraw West & Castlederg and Drumquin.

Born in 1986, Fr Chris is a native of Leckpatrick Parish. His parents, Rosemary and Sean, live in Strabane. Fr Chris tells us that his three brothers, two nieces and a nephew form his closest family. Following school, Chris was employed for several years in an administrative role at the Oncology Department of Altnagelvin Hospital. He subsequently pursued seminary studies at St Malachy's College, Belfast, and St Patrick's College, Maynooth. Since ordination in June 2016, Fr Chris has ministered among the faith communities of St Eugene's Cathedral in Derry, Drumragh (Omagh), Limavady, Kilrea & Desertoghill, Errigal (Garvagh) and Granaghan (Swatragh).

Fr Chris says that, after spending the last five years 'on the missions' in Co Derry, he now looks forward to serving the people of the West Tyrone Pastoral Area. He and Kobe (the pet dog) will take up residence in Castlederg Parochial House at the end of the month.

Fr Chris brings many gifts to his ministry and, in giving generously of himself to serving the people entrusted to his care, I know that he will enjoy the support and encouragement of you all. I pray God's blessing on all that you will share and accomplish together.

Please keep Fr Chris in your prayers as he prepares to move to Castlederg and begin the next chapter of his priestly ministry in the West Tyrone Pastoral Area.

May God bless you all,

Fr Paul.

POINTS TO PONDER –
25 October 2026
To love the Lord with all our heart – is this even possible? A common assumption is that love must just come, that it grows organically, and that it cannot be forced. That's infatuation, not true love. Any kind of love – for a parent, spouse, child, or friend – will reach a point during which it is no longer easy. For love to be true, it must be a free choice and commitment.

'All your heart, soul, and mind' sounds rather extreme, even rather dangerous. The world says that loving anyone totally is a risky proposition – what if the one we love rejects us or lets us down, leaving us with nothing? And the world is even more terrified to love God totally, who cannot even be seen.
This makes sense; after all, to love totally is to trust that we will find fulfillment precisely by not looking for it ourselves, but by looking to fulfill someone else. That old, almost clichéd phrase, 'love grows when it is given away,' is actually spot-on in this regard.

True love takes a leap of faith, which is what frightens nonbelievers. Many people are okay with going to church every now and then or volunteering for a charity from time to time (and posting it on Instagram, of course).
Loving like that does not require us to make any kind of leap, any kind of definitive change, any commitment. But loving God with everything means that all we do is for love of him. We trust that he will take care of us. That is heroic; that is what it means to be a saint

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
'Remember that nothing is small in the eyes of God. Do all that you do with love.'
Saint Thérèse of Lisieux
'We have been called to heal wounds, to unite what has fallen apart, and to bring home those who have lost their way.' Saint Francis of Assisi
'I invite all Christians, everywhere, at this very moment, to a renewed personal encounter with Jesus Christ, or at least an openness to letting him encounter them; I ask all of you to do this unfailingly each day.' Pope Francis (EG 3)

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME • 25 OCTOBER 2026 • YEAR A

Gospel Reflection | Matthew 22:34–40

In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches that the greatest commandment is to love God wholeheartedly and to love our neighbour as ourselves. These two responsibilities are inseparable and form the foundation of Christian life.

Loving God involves more than religious practices such as prayer, worship, and Scripture reading. It means trusting Him in difficult times, remaining faithful through challenges, choosing what is right, and allowing Him to guide every aspect of our lives. Genuine love for God is shown not only in words but also in daily actions.

Our love for God becomes visible in how we treat others. We cannot truly love God while harming, judging, or refusing to forgive those around us. Instead, we are called to show compassion, kindness, patience, and mercy. Even simple acts such as listening, encouraging, forgiving, and helping those in need can become powerful expressions of God's love.

Jesus also calls us to recognise the dignity and worth of every person, including those who differ from us or disappoint us. True love does not ignore wrongdoing, but it speaks the truth with respect and sets boundaries without hatred.

The central message of this Gospel is that love must be at the heart of both our relationship with God and our relationship with others. Faith is not measured by religious knowledge or activities alone, but by whether it transforms us into more loving people. When love guides our thoughts, words, and actions, our lives become a living witness to God's presence in the world.

Prayer for the Week • May the Lord bless us with hearts open to love. May He help us to see Christ in one another and to bring kindness, hope, and compassion wherever we go.
