The Energy of True Religion

'To love God and love your neighbour - this is one of the most attractive of the sayings of Jesus. It is an encouragement to live fully with what brings the greatest joy in life - true love of God and the neighbour. It is at the heart of good religion, and what attracts many to Jesus.

Bad religion puts law above love. Bad religion fights for the partial truth of religion. We risk being victims of bad religion, just as we can be victims of bad nationalism, bad psychology or any other bad way of living. Jesus' life was to propose good religion and to live by it. The religion of some of the Pharisees was bad, in that it was incomplete in its scope.

We admire those who give energy in love and service. We are proud of people we know whose lives make a great and good difference to others. We know that our family and neighbourhood, parish and school, workplace and leisure time have been enriched by the self-sacrificing love of many people, young and old.

'He gave it his all' - we say that of a good player at the end of a match. We say of parents that they "were always there for the children. May we give all we have in our lives, giving in love, knowing that all we give is itself a gift from God, the giver of all good gifts.

FEAST/MEMORIAL DAYS THIS WEEK
Tuesday 27 October - St Otteran, a descendent of Conall Gulban, is usually identified with Odhran who preceded Columba in Iona. His death is recorded in 548 and his grave was greatly revered in Iona. He was chosen by the Vikings as patron of the city of Waterford in 1096 and later patron of the diocese.
Wednesday 28 October - Ss Simon and Jude. The teaching of the apostles is the living Gospel for all to hear. Their authority comes from their fidelity to Christ and his message. Saint Jude is patron saint of hopeless causes.

Thursday 29 October - St Colman, hailed from Kilmacduagh, Co. Galway in the seventh century. After studying in Aran, where he founded two churches at Inis Mor, he returned to make a foundation at Kilmacduagh.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

The Two Great Commandments.

Today's Gospel reminds us of the two great commandments: love of God and love of neighbour. Here in a nutshell, we have the whole teaching of the Bible. The only real failure for a Christian is the failure to love.

By rabbinical count, 'the Law' consisted of some 613 commandments. The question as to which commandment was the greatest was one frequently discussed among the rabbis. Jesus was asked to name one, but responded by naming two. That is because, for him, the second followed directly and necessarily from the first. Love of neighbour arises out of love of God. Both commandments are found in the Old Testament. What is new is not the fact that Jesus brought these two commandments together, but that he made them of equal importance.

READINGS: First Reading (Ex 22:20-26). God tells the Israelites that there must be no discrimination against or exploitation of the weak members of their society. Second Reading (1 Thess 1:5-10). Paul encourages the Thessalonians by telling them that their exemplary lives have become known far and wide. Gospel (Mt 22:34-40). Jesus tells us that the whole of religion can be summed up in two commandments of love.

NOVEMBER DEAD

November is the month of the Holy Souls – a time when the faithful departed are remembered and prayed for with great intensity. This reminds us of our ongoing connection with those who have gone before us in this life. We are still one family – those on earth, those in heaven and those being purified and awaiting paradise.

Mass is said each day, in every parish throughout the world for the dead – particularly remembering all those names included on the November Remembrance Lists. These lists and the November envelopes are available from our Remembrance Garden. When filled in, these can be put into the red box. These lists are then placed on the altar of St Patrick's.

"In Christ the hope of blessed resurrection has dawned, that those saddened by the certainty of dying might be consoled by the promise of immortality to come."

FAMILY OF PARISHES

There will be an announcement at this weekend's masses about the Diocesan 'Family of Parishes' initiative. We are seeking your views about a potential name for our group of parishes, St Patrick's, Holy Family and St Gerards's. Current options are 'The Cavehill', 'Ben Madigan' or 'The Trinity' Family of Parishes. If you have a preference or alternative, please contact the parish office by phone – 02890 324597 or email – stpatricks@downandconnor.org.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

PRAYER TO ST. JUDE

Most holy Apostle, Saint Jude Thaddeus, friend of Jesus, I place myself in your care at this difficult time. Help me know that I need not face my troubles alone. Please join me in my need, asking God to send me: consolation in my sorrow, courage in my fear, and healing in the midst of my suffering. Ask our loving Lord to fill me with the grace to accept whatever may lie ahead for me and my loved ones, and to strengthen my faith in God's healing powers. Thank you, Saint Jude Thaddeus, for the promise of hope you hold out to all who believe, and inspire me to give this gift of hope to others as it has been given to me. Amen

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

25 October 2026 Thirtieth Sunday of Ordinary Time, Year A .

Sunday Gospel True love casts out fear. Jesus told his disciples not to be afraid and yet many of those who consider themselves to be followers of Jesus are terrified of practically everything that is going on around them. Fear paralyses faith, hope and love. Nothing will happen in God's name when believers are afraid of what others think or what might happen. We are called and chosen to love with all our hearts, souls and minds. That teaching is important when the world in which we live is controlled by money, power and wealth. Time to wake up to what the Lord is teaching. We can change the world if we speak the truth in love and that truth will set us free from the oppression of corruption and evil. (Fr S Crumptor).
