Parish Newsletter: Please note that if you wish to have items included in the weekly Parish newsletter, the deadline is always on a Wednesday evening by 5:00pm. Many thanks.

Today's parable is a powerful message about God's patience, our responsibility, and the consequences of rejecting him. God entrusts us with His blessings. God has given us all what we need, His word, His Spirit and His grace. He calls us to be faithful. Do we honour Him with our time, talents and resources? God is patient - His patience is great, but it is not limitless.

When people turn away from Him, they face consequences of their choices. Jesus is the cornerstone we must build our lives on. Is Jesus the cornerstone of your life? Do we build our decisions, actions, and purpose on Him? Do we build our own understanding? Finally a call to repentance and fruitfulness. God desires that we bear fruit, that is, to live lives filled with faith, love and obedience. He calls us to humility and repentance. May we embrace Christ as our foundation, live faithfully, and bear the fruit that glorifies God.

Medugorje Pilgrimage: I will be in Medugorje this week and I will be praying for all your intentions and especially the sick people of my area and those who are in hospital at this time. May Our Lady Queen of Peace pray for us. Amen.

7th October: Our Lady of the Rosary.

"This celebration urges all to meditate on the mysteries of Christ, following the example of the Blessed Virgin Mary who was in a special manner associated with the Incarnation, Passion and glorious Resurrection of the Son of God" (Divine Office).

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy;

Hail, our life, our sweetness, and our hope.

To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve.

to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.

Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray: O God, whose only begotten Son, by his life, death, and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life, grant, we beseech Thee, that meditating upon these mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer by Saint John Henry Newman

May the Lord support us all the day long,
 Till the shades lengthen and the evening comes,

 Then in his mercy may he give us a safe lodging, and holy rest, and peace at the last. Amen.

Prayer of St. Francis. Sunday 4th October 2026

Lord , make me an instrument of your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love,

Where there is injury, pardon,

Where there is doubt, faith,

Where there is despair, hope,

Where there is darkness, light.

Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,

Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,

To be understood as to understand ,

To be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;

27th SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

'He will lease the vineyard to other tenants'

The parable of the vineyard is 'a Bible within the Bible', presenting in veiled form the history of salvation. It's a story of a God who is at once a trusting father, a patient mother and a just judge. The owner of the vineyard trusts the tenants to get on with the task of cultivating it. He shows immense patience by giving them chance after chance to respond to his appeal to produce a harvest. They don't listen. In the end, his patience runs out and he leases the vineyard to other tenants. We are the tenants today. God gives us ample opportunity to produce fruit, but there does come a moment of reckoning when we must account for our stewardship and those who have ears to hear should listen. True fruitfulness begins in the heart and mind when we stand close to the Lord of the vineyard and fill our minds and hearts with all that is true, noble and good. Then if our minds and hearts are right we will be able to love what He loves and do what He does. That in essence is what bearing worthwhile fruit means. It is the outward demonstration of our inward disposition. Thoughts are roots; words are leaves; actions are fruits.

GOSPEL READING:

Matthew 21: 33-43

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard; he fenced it round, dug a winepress in it and built a tower; then he leased it to tenants and went abroad.

When vintage time drew near he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his servants, thrashed one, killed another and stoned a third. Next he sent some more servants, this time a larger number, and they dealt with them in the same way.

Finally, he sent his son to them. "They will respect my son" he said. But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, "This is the heir. Come on, let us kill him and take over his inheritance."

So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They answered, 'He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will deliver the produce to him when the season arrives.'

Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the scriptures: It was the stone rejected by the builders that became the keystone. This was the Lord's doing and it is wonderful to see?'

I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.'

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

He famously preached to birds, tamed the wolves, and addressed the sun, moon, and elements as "Brother" and "Sister." In the final years of his life, Francis's deep immersion in Christ's passion culminated in a remarkable mystical experience. In 1224, he received the stigmata—the physical wounds of the crucified Christ—becoming the first recorded individual in Christian history to bear these marks. Yet, as his health deteriorated his inner joy never wavered.

His name was deliberately chosen by Pope Francis, who has utilized the saint's legacy to guide the global Church toward a renewed focus on marginalised populations and environmental protection, most notably through the encyclical, Laudato si'. Ultimately, the 800th anniversary of Saint Francis of Assisi is not merely a historical retrospective, but a living invitation. His life demonstrates that true wealth is discovered in self-emptying love, authentic peace is forged through humble dialogue, and human survival is deeply intertwined with a reverent care for creation. Eight centuries later, the gentle friar of Assisi still invites the world to rebuild our lives and move towards God.

The year 2026 marks a profound milestone in Christian history and global spirituality: the 800th anniversary of the death of St Francis. On the evening of October 3, 1226, this great saint passed away at the age of forty-four, stripped of his earthly possessions and lying humbly on the bare earth at the Porziuncola chapel. Eight centuries later, the legacy of the beloved "Little Poor Man"—remains an enduring, powerful beacon of peace, radical love, and environmental stewardship. The global commemoration, anchored by a Vatican proclaimed Franciscan Jubilee Year, offers a timeless opportunity for modern believers to reflect on a life that continues to challenge us today.

Born into luxury as the son of a wealthy cloth merchant in Assisi. The decisive turning point in his life arrived at the crumbling chapel of San Damiano, where Francis heard a crucifix speak to him: "Go and repair my house, which is falling into ruin." Initially taking the command literally, Francis sold his father's cloth to fund repairs, and declared that from that day forward he would recognise only "Our Father who art in heaven." This radical renunciation marked the birth of a spiritual revolution.

Francis embraced a life of absolute poverty, choosing to become an itinerant preacher and beggar. His magnetic joy and uncompromising adherence to the Gospel quickly attracted companions, which allowed him to start the Order of Friars Minor in 1209. Francis and his brothers lived directly among the public, ministering to outcasts, lepers, and the destitute. Their simple lifestyle, provided a stunning, prophetic alternative to the institutional wealth of the medieval Church at that time.

His vision expanded further through the co-founding of the Poor Clare's with Saint Clare of Assisi, and the establishment of the Secular Franciscan Order, allowing laypeople to live out Franciscan charisms within their secular callings. Francis sought fraternity rather than conquest, exemplifying the peace prayer traditionally attributed to his heritage.

Equally revolutionary was his mystical intimacy with creation, beautifully captured in his masterpiece, the "Cantic of the Sun." Long before the advent of modern ecology, Francis recognised all living things as interconnected expressions of divine love.

The meaning of the parable: 1) Like the Jews, the second- and third-generation Christians also understood God as the landlord. The servants sent by the landowner represented the prophets of the Old Testament. They were to see to it that God's Chosen People produced fruits of justice, love, and righteousness. But the people refused to listen to the prophets and produced the bitter grapes of injustice, immorality, and idolatry. They persecuted and killed the prophets. As a final attempt, the landowner sent his son, (Jesus), to collect the rent (fruits of righteousness), from the wicked tenants (the Jews). But they crucified him and continued to lead a lives of disloyalty and disobedience. Hence, God's vineyard was to be taken away from His chosen people and given to a people (Gentile Christians), who were expected to produce fruits of righteousness. "The basic theological thrust of the parable of the vineyard is to place the suffering and death of Jesus in line with the mistreatment of God's messengers throughout the centuries.

2) The Lord's Vineyard at present is the Church, and we Christians are the tenants from whom God expects fruits of righteousness. The parable warns us that if we refuse to reform our lives, and to become spiritual fruit-producers we, too, could be replaced, just as the old Israel was replaced by us. As good tenants of God's Vineyard, we need to pay serious attention to relating to others as loving fellow-servants to our common Master. In the parable, the rent the tenants refuse to pay stands for the relationship with God and with all the people of Israel which the religious leaders refuse to cultivate. This means that before anything else, God checks on how well we are fulfilling our responsibilities to each other as children of God. The parable teaches that instead of glorying in isolated splendor, rejoicing in our privileges and Christian heritage, we are called to deeds of love, compassion, patience, generous assistance, forgiveness and mercy, for these are the witness-bearing personal and corporate actions and attitudes that invite and welcome others into God's kingdom.

Life messages: 1) Are we good fruit-producers in the vineyard of the Church? Jesus has given the Church everything necessary to make Christians fruit-bearing. a) The Bible to know the will of God. b) The Sacrament of Holy Orders to consecrate bishops, priests, and deacons to lead the people in God's ways. c) The Sacrament of Reconciliation for the remission of sins. d) The Holy Eucharist as our spiritual food. e) The Sacrament of Confirmation for a dynamic life of Faith. f) The Sacrament of Matrimony for the sharing of love in families, the fundamental unit of the Church. g) The Sacrament of (Last) Anointing to restore and strengthen spiritual life and bring mental emotional and physical healing as well, if that is what God wills. h) Role models in thousands of saints. We are expected make use of these gifts to produce fruits for God.

2) Are we fruit-producers in the vineyard of the family? By the mutual sharing of blessings, by sacrificing time and talents for the members of the family, by humbly and lovingly serving others in the family, by recognizing and encouraging each other and by honoring and graciously obeying our parents, we become producers of "good fruit" for the Vine, Christ, in our families, and so give Glory to God.

3) Are we ready to face these hard questions? What kind of grapes do we as a parish community produce? Are they sweet or sour? What is our attitude toward everything God has given to us? Are we grateful stewards for everything God has given to us, or are we like the ungrateful tenants who acted as if they owned everything God had given them? Do we practice justice every day of our lives? Do we recognize the righteousness of God that keeps us from self-righteousness? Do we remember to show mercy? Is our parish a real sign of Jesus' presence and love?
