26 SUNDAY: Of all the gifts given to us by God, the freedom of choice is perhaps the greatest. We're not pre-determined beings; our choices are sacred and are literally our making, our doing and undoing. When we respond positively to God's grace as also reflected in the best and noblest inspirations and aspirations of our environment, we're shaping ourselves more firmly in the image and likeness of God our Creator. Part of the challenge of our day is to content ourselves with our own good choices which uplift, and determine a better tomorrow for ourselves and society. Let us pray for those who have changed their minds or way of life and turned away from God. May they experience afresh the fervour of their early faith and experience anew God's gifts of peace and joy. (Fr Maurice Henry SMA • sma.ie)

Tue 29: Ss Michael, Gabriel and Raphael, Archangels. The veneration of the Archangels began in the Eastern Church. In the West, this day first marked the dedication of a fifth century church of Saint Michael in Rome. Raphael and Gabriel were added to the Roman calendar in the twentieth century, and the three are now celebrated together.

WED 30: Sep 30 – St Jerome (340-420) priest and doctor of the Church. Baptised in Rome while studying the classics, became a hermit in Syria for a time and was ordained a priest. Began work on a new Latin translation of the Bible. Finally settling in Bethlehem where he founded monasteries, devoted himself to studying the Scriptures, writing, and teaching. Noted for his asceticism and scholarship and his incomparable service to the word of God.

THU 01: St Thérèse of Lisieux (1873-97) Carmelite and Patroness of Missionaries, Doctor of the Church. Coming from a devout family, entered the Carmelites at fifteen, embraced the suffering of ill-health in service to the missionary spread of the gospel. Loved for her simplicity, humility and fidelity to ordinary duties as the path to sanctity, 'The Little way'.

FRI 02: The Holy Guardian Angels. Based on the scriptural belief that God assigns everyone an angel to guard body and soul – an expression of God's personal care for each individual. The feast associates the human race with the eternal song of praise in heaven (Matt: 18:10).

MISSION AWARENESS: A member of the Spiritans will speak at the 7.30pm and 10.30am Masses next weekend 3/4 Oct seeking prayerful and financial support for their mission work.
