CHILDREN'S CORNER: (Loyola Press) In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches us that it is important that our words and our actions go together. Read aloud Matt: 21:28–32. The father asked his two sons to work in the vineyard. What did the first son do? (He said no but then changed his mind and went to work.) What did the second son do? (He said yes but then didn't do the work.) Which son did what his father asked? (the first son) Why might the second son have said yes and then not done the work? Sometimes when we are asked to do something, we might say yes and then forget. Other times, we might have no plans to do what we are asked. We say yes, but we don't mean it. Jesus teaches us that our actions are as important as our words. We are called to love and obey God in our words and in our actions. Take a moment and think of one way you will do so this week. Pray the Lord's Prayer. Our Father...

FAMILY PRAYER TIME: (Loyola Press) The example Jesus poses in today's Gospel could have been taken directly from family experience. Each of us can recall instances in which family members spoke one thing but then did another. The point of Jesus' story is to show that our actions speak louder than words, even with God. As a family, talk about times when a family member said one thing and then did another. Acknowledge that sometimes the action taken displays a true change of heart. Then read today's Gospel, Matthew 21:28-32. Observe that Jesus faulted the religious leaders for not allowing John the Baptist's message of repentance to change their hearts and actions. The word we sometimes use for this change of heart is conversion. Jesus wants us to do more than pay lip service to the Gospel; he wants us to be transformed by his word. Pray together that your family will experience a conversion to God and show evidence of this in both actions and words. Pray together today's second reading, Philippians 2:1-5.

SEPTEMBER 29 - A PRAYER TO ST MICHAEL, GABRIEL AND RAPHAEL ARCHANGELS: Heavenly King, You have given us archangels to assist us during our pilgrimage on earth. Saint Michael is our protector; I ask him to come to my aid, fight for all my loved ones, and protect us from danger. Saint Gabriel is a messenger of the Good News; I ask him to help me clearly hear Your voice and to teach me the truth. Saint Raphael is the healing angel; I ask him to take my need for healing and that of everyone I know, lift it up to Your throne of grace and deliver us back to the gift of recovery. Help us, O Lord, to realize more fully the reality of archangels and their desire to serve us. Holy angels, pray for us. Amen.

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week, Sunday, September 27th: Pope Leo's Encyclical on AI revisited - As headlines swirl with rapid technological acceleration and apocalyptic forecasts, Magnifica Humanitas demands a second, closer look. Just five months since its publication last May, Pope Leo’s first encyclical - on artificial intelligence (AI) – has proven extraordinarily far-seeing. His document bypassed the speculative hype of long-term AI futures to address the exact structural, psychological, and geopolitical stress points that have unfolded over the past five months. New Pilgrim Path has come across a comprehensive and very accessible overview of the encyclical from the website of Ascension Press, a highly regarded American publisher and digital media company specializing in Catholic faith formation material. Access it here: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

The Beatification of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen took place in Missouri on Thursday last. Decades ago, his television show “Life Is Worth Living” brought millions of families together in their living rooms, offering timeless wisdom, humour, and a powerful reminder of God’s love. Today, Blessed Fulton Sheen remains a brilliant guide for our homes. He always taught that the family is the "first church," and he famously promised to spend his heaven interceding for mums, dads, and children. Let’s celebrate his legacy today by bringing his most famous habit into our own homes—making time for prayer, peace, and looking out for one another.

A PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH

Lord, watch over our parish, encouraging us to watch with one another as we seek to know your will.
Make us gentle in word,
kind in spirit,
strong in hope
and guide us,
ever gently
along that road of peace
that leads to your door;
a door that will always open to the knock of faithful people.
Amen.
