Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel Matthew 5-1-12

The condemnation of the scribes and pharisees by Jesus brings to mind the public discourse about the Church in recent years. This has highlighted the failures of church people to live up to the values of the Gospel. This has had a negative effect on many people and on their religious practice. How do you find hope in the midst of this negative criticism?

When our actions match our words about gospel values, then our words carry more weight. Recall people whom you admired for this quality. Perhaps your own experience at times confirms this.

Our passage ends with a paradox. Those who exalt themselves will be humbled and those who humble themselves will be exalted. For Jesus the way to greatness and a full life is through service of others. When have you found the way of service brought unexpected rewards? John Byrne OSA

Music at today's 10:30am Mass

Missa pro defunctis (plainchant/Anerio)

I heard a voice from heaven (Goss)
I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me: Write, from henceforth blessed are the dead which die in the Lord. Even so saith the Spirit, for they rest from their labours.

Nunc dimittis in B flat (Syanford)
Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word. For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people; to be a light to lighten the gentiles and to be the glory of thy people Israel. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
