Parish Eucharistic Adoration:

Monday morning at 10.30am until Friday night at 10.00pm

Today's Scripture Readings from Universalis

Entrance Antiphon

Let my prayer come into your presence.
Incline your ear to my cry for help, O Lord.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

Readings at Mass

A reading from the book of Wisdom 6:12-16

Wisdom is bright, and does not grow dim.
By those who love her she is readily seen,
and found by those who look for her.
Quick to anticipate those who desire her, she makes herself known to them.
Watch for her early and you will have no trouble;
you will find her sitting at your gates.
Even to think about her is understanding fully grown;
be on the alert for her and anxiety will quickly leave you.
She herself walks about looking for those who are worthy of her and graciously shows herself to them as they go,
in every thought of theirs coming to meet them.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

R. For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God.

O God, you are my God, for you I long;
for you my soul is thirsting.
My body pines for you
like a dry, weary land without water. R

So I gaze on you in the sanctuary to see your strength and your glory.
For your love is better than life,
my lips will speak your praise. R

So I will bless you all my life,
in your name I will lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled as with a banquet,
my mouth shall praise you with joy. R

On my bed I remember you.
On you I muse through the night
for you have been my help;
in the shadow of your wings I rejoice. R

A reading from first letter of St. Paul to Thessalonians 4:13-18

We want you to be quite certain, brothers, about those who have died, to make sure that you do not grieve about them, like the other people who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Jesus: God will bring them with him. We can tell you this from the Lord's own teaching, that any of us who are left alive until the Lord's coming will not have any advantage over those who have died. At the trumpet of God, the voice of the archangel will call out the command and the Lord himself will come down from heaven; those who have died in Christ will be the first to rise, and then those of us who are still alive will be taken up in the clouds, together with them; to meet the Lord in the air. So we shall stay with the Lord for ever. With such thoughts as these you should comfort one another.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Stay awake and stand ready,
because you do not know the hour
when the Son of Man is coming.
Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to St. Matthew 25:1-13

Jesus told this parable to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven will be like this: Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were sensible: the foolish ones did take their lamps, but they brought no oil, whereas the sensible ones took flasks of oil as well as their lamps. The bridegroom was late, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep. But at midnight there was a cry, "The bridegroom is here! Go out and meet him." At this, all those bridesmaids woke up and trimmed their lamps, and the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, "Give us some of your oil: our lamps are going out." But they replied, "There may not be enough for us and for you; you had better go to those who sell it and buy some for yourselves." They had gone off to buy it when the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding hall and the door was closed. The other bridesmaids arrived later. "Lord, Lord," they said "open the door for us." But he replied, "I tell you solemnly, I do not know you." So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

Prayer over the Offerings

Look with favour, we pray, O Lord,
upon the sacrificial gifts offered here,
that, celebrating in mystery the Passion of your Son,
we may honour it with loving devotion.
Through Christ our Lord.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose,
near restful waters he leads me.

Novena Prayer to St. Martin de Porres

Most humble St. Martin whose burning charity embraces all, but especially the sick, afflicted or in need, we turn to you for help in our present difficulties and we implore you to obtain for us from God health of soul and body, and in particular the favour we now ask.
May we, by imitating your charity and humility, find quiet and contentment all our days, and cheerful sub-mission to God's holy will in all the trials and difficulties of life. St. Martin, pray for us that we may be worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen.
O God who exalts the humble and who made St. Martin your confessor to enter into the heavenly Kingdom, grant through his merits and intercession that we may so follow the example of his humility on earth as to deserve to be exalted with him in Heaven. Through Christ Our Lord Amen.

Charity Tax Rebate Scheme – the parish hopes to submit a claim to Revenue in Jan. 2027 for the 2026 financial year. The scheme allows all registered and regulated charities (including parishes) to reclaim the tax component of charitable donations made in a given year. If you pay tax and have contributed €250 or more, then your donations will already have been taxed. Revenue will refund the parish a standard 45 cents for every €1 donated. More information located at exit doors. Please take a copy of the green flyer home and, if you can help, fill in the minimal details and return.

Blue November Offering Envelopes – are included in the box of Offertory Envelopes. They are intended for anyone who would like to make an offering for Masses said for the dead throughout November. For those who would like the names of their dead included, they can put a list into the blue envelope or, alternatively, write on the paper insert of the separate November envelopes at the doors. There will be a basket in front of the altar for the envelopes / names. If putting money into an envelope, return it in the Offertory Collection or hand directly to Fr. Gerry. Church Rotas – many thanks to all who are involved in the various ministries, especially at the weekend Masses – Readers, Ministers of Holy Communion, Basket Collectors etc., etc. Just a reminder ….. if someone on a rota can't make it, it would be appreciated if others could stand in for them on that occasion.

Offertory Envelopes for 2027 – are available at St. Joseph's altar. First and foremost, a big thank you for your ongoing very generous support of the church. It is much appreciated. The weekly figures published in the Newsletter speak for themselves. The percentage of people who use the weekly offertory envelope to donate to the church in preference to "loose plate" contributions is very high in this parish. This is to be commended, as it indicates a great ongoing commitment by parishioners to their local church. The envelope system also allows the parish to claim back the tax that has already been paid on donations. If you can help in this respect, please do. Early next year there will be a summary of church accounts for 2026 made available to parishioners. Again, many thanks for your support.

Revised Traffic Plans for outside Rockfield Church – No updates.
Masses can be booked – with Fr. Gerry directly or directly through the parish office in Collooney (071) 9167235. The Newsletter is printed in Collooney.
